

The Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) requires public school special education services consultation with private schools. For the purposes of IDEA, in Arkansas homeschool students are also considered private school students. There will be a special education consultation for students living in the Ouachita River School District who attend a private school or are homeschooled. Please contact William Edwards at 479-216-2251 if you have any questions.