

The Crow-Applegate-Lorane School District is interested in looking at and talking about Alternative School Calendars. The School Board has a subcommittee assembled to guide the process and here is the expected timeline:

- ~~Feb. 1 - Sharing of information, part 1~~
- Feb. 8 - Sharing of information, part 2
- Feb. 15 - Gather feedback via online poll, emails, conversations with subcommittee members, etc.
- Feb. 22 - host the first “town hall” for questions/answers
- Feb. 27 - host the second “town hall” for questions/answers
- Feb. 29 - subcommittee drafts some proposed school calendars to share out
- March 7 - electronically share draft calendars and gather feedback
- March 14 - subcommittee meets to review feedback
- March 21 - subcommittee presents results to school board

Below is part two of some information sharing. There are many research findings and articles about school calendars and our team has selected a few that stood out to us.

- Proof Points: Seven new studies on the impact of a four-day school week
 - article
- Does Four Equal Five? Implementation and Outcomes of a Four-Day School Week
 - article
- Education Week’s “Is It Time to Reconsider the Year-Round School Schedule?”
 - article
- PBS Video about year-round school
 - video
- Is a 4-day school week the next trend in education?
 - video

