Commerce Eighth Graders Excel in Writing Contest

Sasha Vanatta won the VFW Patriot Pen Essay Contest with her four hundred word submission titled "What Inspires Me About America." Fellow eighth grader, Chase McDonald, placed second in the contest. The essays were judged on knowledge of theme, theme development, and clarity of ideas. There were over 80 essays submitted from local middle schools: Vinita, Wyandotte, Miami, Grove, and others. Sasha's entry will move on to be judged at the District level. The winners will receive their medals and cash awards at an assembly after Christmas. Congrats to these amazing students.

- Satisfactory AR reading time.

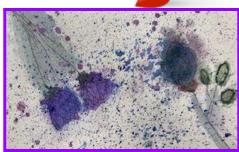

StuCo Sponsors Tiger Time Contest Best Decorated Stocking

The CMS student council is sponsoring a "Best Decorated Stocking" contest between the Wednesday Tiger Time classes. The classes were given a paper stocking template and they can decorate however they choose. The school board will judge the creations on Thursday the 14th. The winning class will receive a pizza party before Christmas Break. At the time of publication, the stockings are still being created, but the winner and pictures will be in the January edition of the paper.
