DISCUSSION ITEMS

Social Emotional Learning Survey detailed results

The group discussed the analysis of the fill in the blank survey. Goal of this endeavor is to educate students, parents, and community. Jon Wadsworth reviewed the parent survey first. He noted the differences between parents' top answers versus students' top answers.

Discussion items included: Can RMS offer an IA study hall; after school homework club & WIN (K-8) are current interventions/supports offered to students; 2nd step – has a home connect; Parents – best communicated through social media; Students communication is best by student ambassadors, Snap Chat, Mental Health Instagram, Tik Tok; talk with Jim Manley what can be done in regards to Podcasts; and begin to think about topics.

Next steps

Get content and information on services out there.

Topic to focus on – Try to get student ambassadors formed - Grace & Jared – Student ambassadors (Impact hours could be offered)

Students need a clear focus on what is expected and offered in regard to social-emotional health.

Set agenda for next meeting

Everyone at the meeting are wanting to come back to the committee for the 2023-24 school year.

SCHEDULING OF NEXT MEETING

The next meeting of the Community Engagement Committee will be in September, 2024.

Margo will send meeting dates out once they have been established.

ADJOURNMENT

Motion to adjourn made by Ryan Miller, and seconded by Gretchen Fulton, to adjourn at 4:26 p.m. All were in favor.
