

Patriot's Pen Essay

Whenever you see anything about our soldiers fighting, are you inspired? When you see someone wearing clothing stating they served, do you thank them for their service? We should be inspired and should always thank our soldiers for what they have done. I am also inspired by America because of our soldiers and their dedication to our country.

We should be inspired by the soldiers' dedication. Our veterans have had and still do have, a remarkable amount of dedication, no matter whether they fought or not. First, their dedication to fighting for us and our country is unmatched. Second, Less than half of a percent of the population is currently enrolled in the military, that is less than 2 million people, responsible for the safety of 333 million people. Third, we need to think of the veterans and soldiers' dedication as a role model to our people to be dedicated to their job, whether small or big, a large amount of dedication can make a big difference and impact, personally or publicly. Their dedication to this role is very impressive. It should inspire everyone, whether they are young or old, Republican or Democratic, poor or rich, because of what the US military does for our country willingly.

We need to always be thankful for our veterans because they are the reason we can sit around all day if we want to. When we do not thank them, we aren't honoring them for what they did for our country because they have sacrificed so much for us and to keep America free . When we thank them, it's showing them respect for all they have done for us to have what we have and do things. We should always be thankful because they are the reason that we are able to live free and keep saying our country is free. Thanking them is also a nice gesture to show respect and thanks, and even if you do not support acts of violence, they still put their lives on the line for you and the U.S.A.

To conclude this paper, we need to be inspired by our soldiers and we need to thank them for all that they have done. If you aren't comfortable with fighting for our country, or joining first responders, thank any veterans you see, because they have done loads for our country.
