

May 19, 2025

Good afternoon PCPS Faculty, Staff, and Families,

Today, the division announced three administrative placements for the 2025-2026 school year.

Principal of Page County Middle School

Mrs. Jennifer Hitt has been selected as the new Principal of Page County Middle School. She is replacing Mrs. Tanya Miller, who will now serve as the Chief Financial Officer for the division. Mrs. Hitt holds a Bachelor's of Science in Kinesiology & Sports Studies and a Bachelor's of Science in Health and Physical Education from Eastern Mennonite University, a Masters of Education in Special Education and Masters in Education in Administration and Supervision from Averett University.

Mrs. Hitt has taught special education, has served as a Compliance Coordinator at Charterhouse School, and as an administrator at the Minnick School. She served as the varsity girls basketball coach at Eastern Mennonite High School. Mrs. Hitt brings a wealth of instructional, special education and administrative experience to PCMS, as well as an extensive background in working with students with behavioral challenges. Ms. Hitt has a proven track record of success in building strong relationships with students, families, faculty, and the community. She is a skilled communicator and collaborator, with a strong focus on data-driven decision-making.

Mrs. Hitt resides in Mt. Crawford with her husband and son. "I am incredibly honored to step into the role of Principal at Page County Middle School. Over the past year, I've had the privilege of working with a dedicated team and connecting with our exceptional students and families. I'm excited to continue strengthening a school culture built on respect, growth, and high expectations. Together, we will ensure that every student has the opportunity to thrive—academically, socially, and emotionally."

Principal of Luray High School

Mrs. Tara Meadows has been selected to serve as the next Principal of Luray High School. Mrs. Meadows is replacing Mrs. Nicky Clark who will be serving as the Director of School Administration beginning July 1, 2025.

Mrs. Meadows is currently serving as the Assistant Principal of Luray High School, a role she began in July of 2021. Prior to her role as the Assistant Principal, she served as a social studies teacher at Luray High School since 1999. She also served as the head Cross Country and Track and Field Coach at Luray High, a position she held for 19 years. Mrs. Meadows holds a Bachelor's of Arts in History and Political Science with a minor in Education from Bridgewater College, and she earned both a Master's degree in Curriculum and Instruction and her Educational Leadership Certificate from James Madison University.

Mrs. Meadows shares "I am privileged to have spent my professional career thus far as a teacher, coach, and Assistant Principal at Luray High School. The students and staff at LHS hold a special place in my heart, and I am excited to embrace the role of Principal, serving our school and community in a new capacity. I firmly believe that every student who walks through the halls of LHS is the most important individual we engage with daily. It is essential for families and schools to collaborate in setting students up for future success and preparing them to become tomorrow's leaders. Luray High School has a rich history of exceptional educators who work together to promote student growth and foster a sense of community, all while enjoying the journey. I am honored to be part of this tradition and eagerly anticipate the years of growth that lie ahead. I am truly grateful for the opportunity to serve."

Director of Special Education

PCPS is excited to announce that Mrs. Brandy Hilliard has been selected to serve as the next Director of Special Education. Mrs. Hilliard is replacing Mrs. Ellen Baker who will be leaving PCPS to serve as the Director of Special Education with Shenandoah County Public Schools. Mrs. Baker -thank you for your 10 years of service to PCPS! We wish all the best in Shenandoah County.

Mrs. Hilliard is currently serving as a Supervisor for Special Education, with previous experience as a Facilitator for Special Education. Mrs. Hilliard began her career in Page County as a substitute, then served as a paraprofessional and a special education teacher at Page County High School.

Mrs. Hilliard holds a Bachelor's of Science degree in Management and Organizational Development from Eastern Mennonite University, a Master's in Education in Special Education from George Mason University, and a Postgraduate Certification in Educational Leadership from James Madison University.

Mrs. Hilliard and her husband live in Stanley, Virginia, where they raised their two children, Jaeger and Jada. She shared, "I'm honored and excited to step into the role of Director of Special Education for Page County Public Schools. Supporting students in reaching their full potential, both in the classroom and beyond graduation, is my deepest passion."

Please join us in congratulating Mrs. Hitt, Mrs. Meadows, and Mrs. Hilliard!

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Antonia M. Fox." The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned above the printed name of the signatory.

Antonia M. Fox, Ed.D.
Superintendent