The Cody Community

Cody was founded by Colonel William F. "Buffalo Bill" Cody, who passed through the region in the 1870's, impressed by the development possibilities, in the mid 1890's he returned to start a town. Cody is located along the Shoshone River and is nestled between the Beartooth and Absaroka Mountains with a population of 10,389. Cody is also 52 miles from the Yellowstone National Park's East Entrance which makes Cody a popular tourist destination.
