TUPELO

1968

*Published By The Student Body Of Nyssa High School
Nyssa, Oregon*

"Nyssa High School, we do plea,
Accept this pledge of faith to thee!"

The echos from the Alma Mater fade away as another school year comes to a close. Hard work, rewards, joys and disappointments have made
1967-68 a special year, a year to remember.
Tupelo's purpose is to present a history of that memory-filled year--a history portrayed in pictures.

Sincerely,

Marie Dufee

Editor

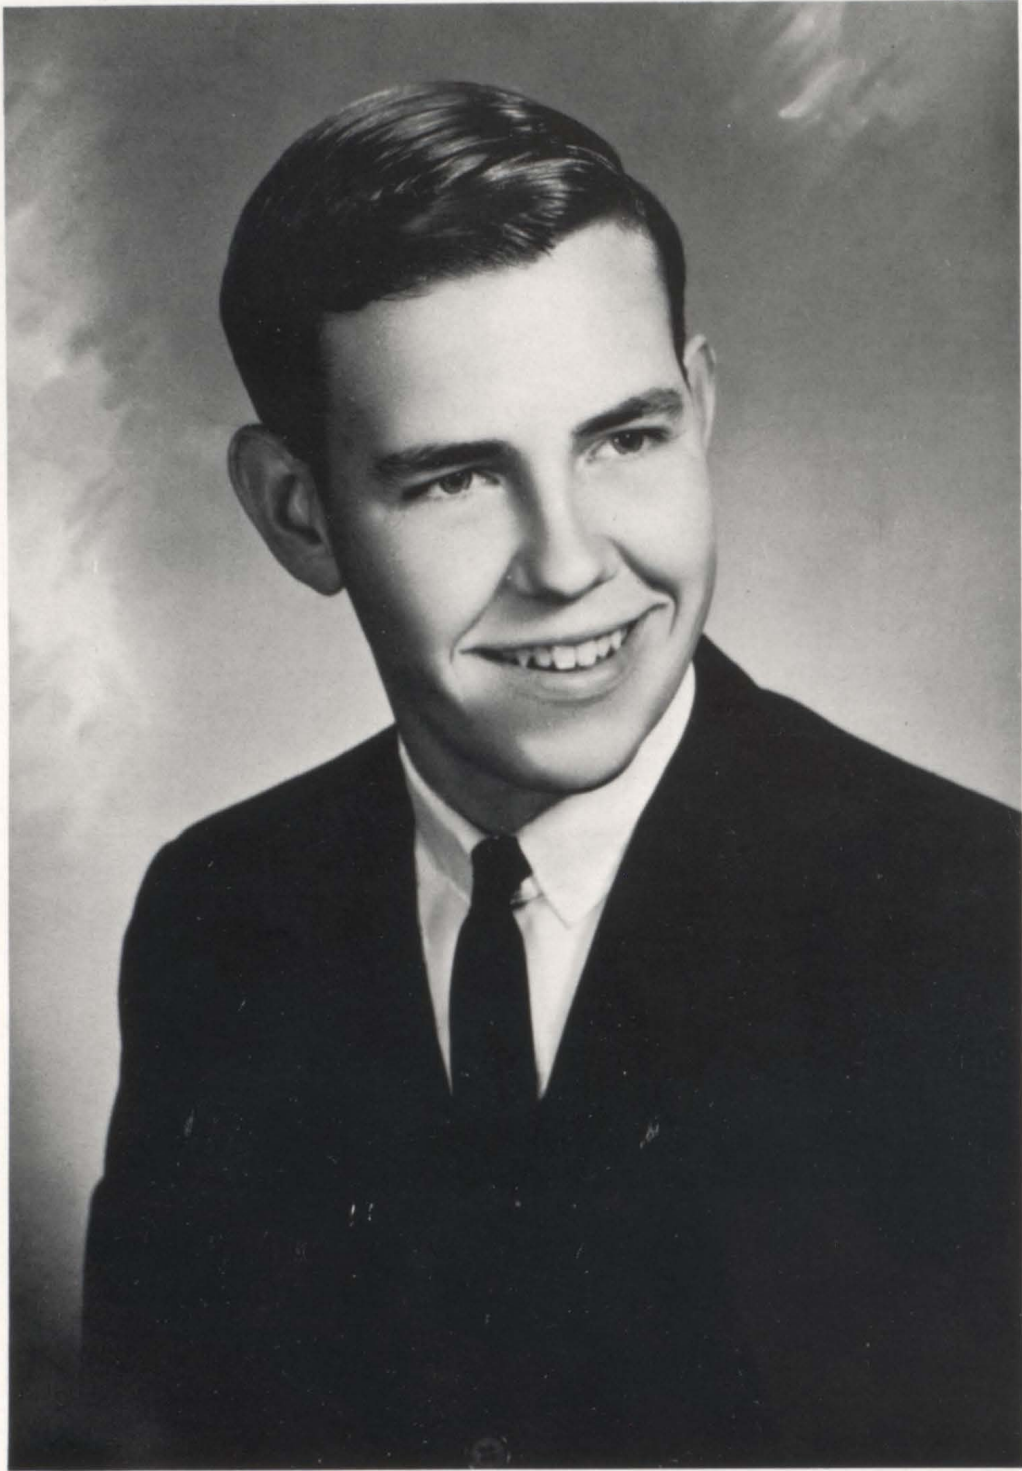

Dedication

Virginia Steffens

Devotion is one of Mrs. Steffens many fine qualities, as she has devoted the last 25 years to the students at Nyssa High School. Through the years Mrs. Steffens has taught girls' physical education and family relations as well as homemaking. She gives freely of her time in helping students, advising FHA and serving in worthwhile community activities. We, the annual staff, wish to dedicate this Tupelo to her in appreciation for the years of service she has given to Nyssa High students.

1967-1968 Exchange Student

ULVI UNAL
ANKARA, TURKEY

I am very glad for I came U. S. in 1968 as an exchange student: This year has been lots of fun and experience for me. I liked everything in U. S. A., especially the people and Adams family with whom I stayed.

I am obliged to all persons who are in charge of AFS program, student body, and Nyssa people who gave me this wonderful opportunity which helped me to know U. S. A.

Ali Ulvi Unal

Hard at work, like most of his classmates.

The Dale Adams family and Ulvi.

After a football game.

Senior Snaps

Senior All-Night Party

It began with a roast pig banquet.

Using chopsticks only!

Then came entertainment.

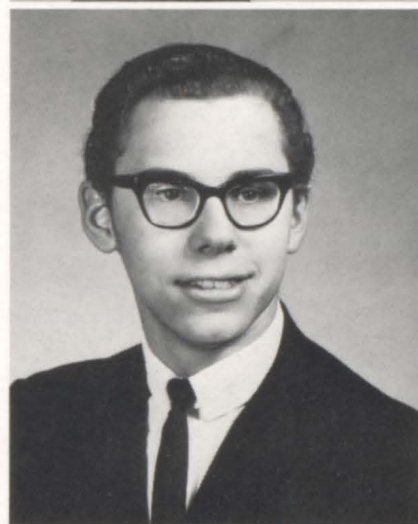

After that--supplement signing.

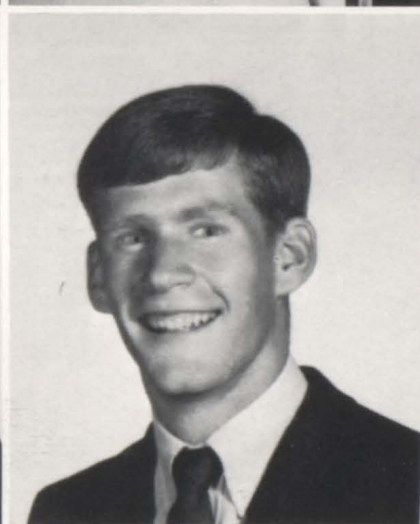

But mostly just a lot of tiredness.

The rest of the party included a show from 1:00 A. M. to 5:00 A. M. and then an early breakfast. I think the last picture sums up the rest of the party. The easiest thing to remember about it is the tiredness.

The Last Day Of School

Class Of 1968

Seniors return Wednesday morning for graduation practice.

Mrs. Brumbach helps prepare students for Baccalaureate - Commencement Exercises.

Graduation, An End And A Beginning

One last pose!

Prepares For Graduation

The class meets in cafeteria to get organized.

They help each other with robes and caps--everything must be perfect.
