COUNSELOR'S CORNER

National Bullying Prevention Month

How You Can Get Involved:

Start Conversations: Engage in open dialogues with your friends and family about the importance of preventing bullying and the impact it has on individuals and communities.

Support: Be a friend and advocate for those who may be experiencing bullying. Offer your support, and let them know they are not alone.

Promote inclusion: Create an inclusive environment at school that values diversity and differences.

Report: If you witness or experience bullying, don't hesitate to report it. Reporting is a crucial step in ending the cycle of bullying.

During National Bullying Prevention Month, let's stand together, united in our commitment to prevent and address bullying. By taking action and spreading kindness, empathy, and acceptance, we can create a world where everyone feels safe, valued, and empowered.
