1st Semester Exam Testing Procedures:

- All tests must be taken on schedule; no tests can be taken earlier than the scheduled date and time.
- Students are exempt from semester tests if they meet one of the following: Absent 3 or fewer days (excused or unexcused) in a class or student has an A in the class for the semester. College visit absences do not count against the student's attendance.
- Students who have an F in a class or who have had ISS or OSS are required to take semester exams.
- A doctor note will be required in order to make up any exam. Makeup exams will be given on Wednesday, December 20 during the regularly scheduled class time. If a student misses the test on December 20, a doctor note will be required for that day (12/20) in order to make up the exam in Saturday School on January 6 at 7:30 am.

- Students who have to take tests must remain in class the entire 90 minutes.
- Buses will run on regular schedules on each of the testing days.
- All students should return textbooks to their teacher when they have completed the course.

Schedule for Test Days:

Friday, December 15: Closed Campus – Regular School Day: Nine weeks tests will be given in all nine weeks classes. All semester classes should be given an assignment for a grade on this day.
