

Dean's/DFA brands dairy, which supplies milk to our school district, has an issue with packaging products. We will be receiving milk in a shelf stable package for the next few months. This is regular milk that has the same flavor as the half pint containers we normally get. It will be served cold and should not be consumed by students that are lactose intolerant.