

Greetings Blackhawk Nation,

My name is Josh Isaacson, and I am honored to have been selected to serve as the Superintendent of the Bloomer School District for the 2024-2025 school year. Over the past few weeks, everyone I have spoken with regarding Bloomer has commented on the high-quality of education provided to students as well as the unwavering community support toward Bloomer schools. As your next superintendent, my goal is to begin building individual relationships based on the premise of trust, loyalty, and partnership, to ensure the success of all Blackhawks. I am looking forward to visiting the district in the near future to meet each of you and begin learning more about Bloomer schools and the community.

Over the past 19 years, I have served in several school districts and in a number of roles. These positions have included: middle school social studies classroom teacher, middle and high school assistant principal, middle school athletic director, summer elementary principal, assistant superintendent, and superintendent. Currently, I have the privilege to work alongside a talented and devoted group of educators in De Soto, Missouri.

I am 45 years old and am retiring as superintendent from the Missouri Public Education System at the end of the 2023-2024 school year. You might be wondering how I am retiring from Missouri and the answer is simple, I purchased years of service to meet the retirement requirements of the Public School Retirement System of Missouri. My reason for doing so was to be able to continue to serve as an educator in Wisconsin, where my family and I can be closer to our families. My wife Elizabeth (everyone calls her Izzie and you can as well) and I are both graduates of Mondovi High School and UW-Eau Claire. We have three children, Aiden, 14, Addison, 11, and Elsie, 6.

As your superintendent, I will strive to involve all stakeholders and continually bring the best interest of the students to the forefront when making educational decisions. I enjoy the challenges of a changing educational world, and I am thankful and humbled to serve as your next superintendent. I am genuinely excited to meet all of the students, parents, staff, and members of the Bloomer community. You can always reach me on my cell (573) 590-1878 or via email at Drjisaacson@gmail.com.

Respectfully,

Joshua J. Isaacson, Ed.D
