Beavers Compete at Parker Invite

By Eliza Oltmanns

The Hanson high school cross country team traveled to the ParMar Golf Course by Parker on Wednesday, September 27, to run in the Parker Invite.

The girl's varsity meet ran first for the day. Eliza Oltmanns led the team with a third place finish (23:54.9) while Elliott Abbey placed fourth (24:16.3). Not far behind was another pack of Hanson girls. Cadence Jarding crossed the finish line in sixth place (24:31.4); Alysya Moschell, seventh place (24:36.8); and Reese Marek, eighth place (24:54.5). All the girls placed high on the roster which led to a first place team score in the girl's varsity division.

The varsity boys had

Carson Ferry running a time of 21:59.3 which landed him a spot in 12th place. Finishing in 20th place, running a time of 22:48.5, was Anthony Geist. Will Jarding finished in 23rd place (23:51.1). The boy's team finished the meet placing sixth as a team.

In the girl's junior varsity division, Hanson had two runners that competed in the race. Tenly Slaba placed sixth with a time of 19:30.0 while Kyannah Sweeten placed 13th (21:26.7).

The cross country team will compete at the Howard Invite on Monday, October 2. The Hanson middle school and HS teams will be in Parkston on Thursday, October 5, to run in the Ethan/Parkston Cross Country Meet.

Wagner Defeats the Beaverettes

By Elizabeth Rassel

The Hanson Beaverettes traveled to Wagner to play against the Red Raiders on Tuesday, September 26.

The varsity team brought out their best bump, set, and hits, but they didn't quite catch the victory that they wanted. Set scores were: 14-25, 20-25, and 20-25.

The lucky number of the night must've been two, because Claire Bridge, Cadence Jarding, Taziah Hawkins, and Jersey Kampshoff marked two aces each.

Starting off with the kills is Hawkins with seven kills followed by Kiana Berg with four of her own. Jazzy Campbell and Ava Doyle each slapped down three kills.

Jarding tallied eight set assists to help the team.

The defensive side of the net was really guarded this game as Bridge dug up

17 passes from Wagner. Her teammates, Campbell and Hawkins, marked eight digs each.

The varsity's record stands at 5-14.

The junior varsity also battled the Wagner team but fell short. Set scores were 15-25 and 23-25.

Alivia Bender led the team with three kills of the night. Dana Degen and Ava Doyle followed by scoring two of their own kills.

We all love a helping hand, especially when they're for the volleyball team. Taryn Holm assisted the team with seven set assists.

Leading the team in digs was Degen with 10 digs. Her teammates, Holm and Brooke Endorf, dug up seven passes each.

The JV's record has been changed to 4-4.
