

Beaverettes Win Hanson Tourney

The Hanson fifth and sixth grade girls basketball teams competed in the Fifth and Sixth Grade Hanson Girls Basketball Tournament on Saturday, January 27, in Alexandria.

The sixth grade faced Canistota in their first game. The young Beaverettes defeated Canistota, 19-17, in overtime with Harlee Schulz hitting the winning shot at the buzzer. Top scorers for the team were Skya White with 15 points followed by Ashtyn Hoffman and Schulz with two points each.

In the second game, the Beaverettes beat Freeman Academy/Marion, 28-9. Leading the team in scoring was White with 14 points followed by Madalynn Ruden with 12. Schulz put up four points while Hoffman had two points.

With the win, the sixth grade placed first overall and moved their record to 5-0.

The fifth grade was victorious over FA/M, 16-7, in their first game. Ava Borns led the team in scoring with 10 points. Braylee Tegethoff had four points while Adisyn Wingen added two points.

In their second game, the fifth grade fell to Canistota, 14-7. Leading the team in scoring was Tegethoff with three points followed by Borns and Wingen with two points apiece.

With the win, the fifth grade team's record stands at 2-3.

Hanson sixth grade won the Hanson Sixth Grade Tournament on Saturday. Team members include, kneeling: Maylee Estrada, Hannah Schroeder, Taylor Kayser, Madalynn Ruden; standing: Coach Wyatt Kayser, Carys Patzlaff, Ashtyn Hoffman, Harlee Schulz, Brianna Ferry, Skya White.

Bridge Marks 630th Win, Becomes SD All-Time Winningest Girls Basketball Coach

Hanson girls basketball coach, Jim Bridge, became the winningest girls basketball coach in South Dakota with the Hanson Beaverettes win over Bridgewater-Emery on Friday, January 26, in Alexandria. Bridge marked his 630th career win, surpassing Dawn Seiler's record. Congratulations, Coach Jim Bridge!

Beaverettes Sweep the Blackhawks

by Avarie Prien

On Tuesday, January 23, the Hanson girls' basketball team hosted the Sanborn Central/Woonsocket Blackhawks in a double header with the boys' basketball team.

In the varsity girls' game, the Beaverettes beat the Blackhawks with a score of 53-34. The top scorers were Alyssa Moschell with 13 points followed by Taziah Hawkins and Kylie Haiar with 12 points each.

Leading the team in assists was Haiar with five. Moschell and Hawkins had four assists each.

Defensively, Haiar and Moschell led the team in re-bouncing with seven rebounds each.

Moschell contributed six steals in the game.

The Beaverettes went 20-of-41 (49%) from the field; and made seven-of-11 (64%) from the free throw line.

After the win, the varsity Beaverettes' record moved to 10-1.

For the junior varsity, the Beaverettes won against the Blackhawks by a score of 39-19.

Offensively, Olivia Kayser led the team with 14 points followed by Grace Arend with seven points. Kendra Endorf and Paige Kayser put up five points apiece.

As for rebounding, P. Kayser and Ava Doyle had five rebounds each.

Endorf led the team in steals with four followed by O. Kayser and Arend with three steals apiece.

The victory moved the JV record to 9-2.

The C-team dominated the Blackhawks with a score of 34-27.

Dana Degen led the team in scoring with 12 points. Lacey Easton put up six points followed by Isabel Kayser and Hannah Easton adding four points each.

With the win, the C-team record stands at 3-0.

Young Beaverettes Split With Huskies

The Hanson fifth and sixth grade girls' basketball teams took on the Bridgewater-Emery Huskies at home on Thursday, January 25.

The fifth grade fell to the Huskies, 20-11. Ava Borns led the team in scoring with seven points. Adisyn Wingen and Braylee Tegethoff had two points each.

The fifth grade record stands at 1-2.

The sixth grade was victorious over the Huskies, 20-8. Skya White led the team in scoring with 14 points. Hannah Schroeder put up four points while Ashtyn Hoffman had two points.

With the win, the sixth grade record advanced to 3-0.

Beaverettes Sweep Menno

The Hanson fifth and sixth grade girls' basketball teams hosted the Menno Wolves on Monday, January 22.

The fifth grade beat the Wolves, 18-10. Leading the team was Ava Borns with 14 points. Adisyn Wingen and Clairessa Wenninghoff added two points apiece.

The sixth grade defeated Menno, 42-19. Skya White led the team in scoring with 23 points. Maylee Estrada put up six points while Hannah Schroeder had five points. Harlee Schulz and Ashtyn Hoffman contributed four points each while Madalynn Ruden had two points.

Beavers Fall to Wagner

On Monday, January 22, the Hanson fifth and sixth grade boys' basketball teams hosted the Freeman Flyers.

The fifth grade defeated the Flyers, 16-14. Top scorers were Tayton Lachnit and Harrison Van Dover with five points each. Tyson Wilber added four points while Brantley Kusser had two points.

The sixth grade beat the Flyers, 29-26. Mason Dewald cashed in 12 points followed by Rhoen Marek with eight points. Kieran Day put up six points while Mason Fredrich had two points. Cooper Jarding added one point.

On Tuesday, January 23, the fifth and sixth grade teams hosted the Wagner Red Raiders.

The fifth grade fell to Wagner, 15-24. Van Dover had eight points while Wilber had four. Henry Nielson added two points.

The sixth grade lost to Wagner, 21-23. Marek and Dewald led the team in scoring with six points apiece. Day had five points while Fredrich had four points.

Beaverettes Notch Win Against Huskies

The Hanson Beaverettes hosted the Bridgewater-Emery Huskies in a double header with the boys' basketball team on Friday, January 26.

The varsity defeated the Huskies, 74-25, and advanced their record to 11-1. The Beaverettes jumped out to a commanding 24-4 lead in the first quarter. The ladies scored 16 points to the Huskies eight points in the second quarter. Halftime score was Hanson 40, B-E 12. The Beaverettes continued to dominate the Huskies in the second half for the win.

Top scorers for the team were Kylie Haiar with 22 points followed by Taziah Hawkins with 15. Alyssa Moschell put up 12 points while Cadence Jarding and Eliza Oltmanns added 10 points apiece.

Al. Moschell dished out five assists in the game while Avery Moschell and Hawkins had four assists each.

Leading the team in rebounding was Al. Moschell with 10 followed by Haiar with nine.

Jarding led the team in steals with four.

The Beaverettes' win was Coach Jim Bridge's 630th win, making him the winningest girls basketball coach in South Dakota.

The junior varsity downed the Huskies, 32-14. Ava Doyle led all players with 11 points. Olivia Kayser cashed in eight points while Grace Arend had six points.

Kayser led the team in assists with three in the game.

Leading the team in rebounding was Kayser with six rebounds followed by Lacey Easton and Jacey Schoenrock with three rebounds apiece.

Easton led the team in steals with five followed by Kendra Endorf with four steals.

The JV record improved to 10-2.

Beavers Battle Against Blackhawks

by Elizabeth Rassel

On Tuesday, January 23, the Hanson high school boys' basketball team was challenged at home by Sanborn Central/Woonsocket Blackhawks.

The varsity team almost gained a win from the Blackhawks, but lost with a score of 55-49.

Jayce Slaba led the team in scoring with 17 points followed by Sutton Dewald 11 points. Ben Wilber scored eight points while Isayah Price added six points for the team.

The most rebounds for the night go to AJ Wilber and Price with six rebounds apiece. Slaba grabbed five rebounds while B. Wilber had four.

Slaba led the team in assists with a total of four assists.

The varsity as a whole made 20-of-36 (55.6%) from the field; hit one-of-18 (5.6%) beyond the arc; and sank six-of-11 (54.5%) from the charity stripe.

The varsity team's record is now 7-4.

The junior varsity Beavers fought hard against SC/W, but lost their game with a score, 41-32. Leading the team in scoring was Tye Hernandez and Nathan Wilber with eight points apiece. Carter Popp followed with six points while Conner Endorf and Jett Jager scored three points each.

The record for the JV team is now 6-4.

On Monday, January 22, the C-team traveled to Forestburg to play the Blackhawks. The Beavers won against the Blackhawks, 34-25. N. Wilber led the team with a total of 12 points. Pierce Kayser scored nine points while Radek Jarding scored six.

The C-team record moved to 5-1.

Girls Basketball Double Header
Corn Palace in Mitchell
Saturday, February 3
Hanson Girls Classic Make-up games
4:00 PM: Hanson JV vs. Forence/Henry JV
5:00 PM: Hanson vs. Forence/Henry
6:30 PM: Centerville vs. Flandreau
Hanson Girls Classic passes will be accepted.

Hanson Beavers vs. Canistota Hawks
Hanson School Gym
Monday, February 19
6:15 PM: Hanson JV vs. Canistota JV
7:30 PM: Hanson Varsity vs. Canistota Varsity