

Dear Community Businesses and Organizations:

The Hinckley-Big Rock High School Student Council would like to invite you to participate in the 2024 Homecoming Parade. This year's theme is "HBR Dances through the Decades." Two $25 prizes for first place will be awarded, one for a community business entry and one for a community club entry. The entry fee for the parade is $10.00 to help the Student Council pay for the expenses of the parade.

The schedule for the Homecoming festivities is full of activities in which the school and community may participate together. We invite you to take part in the following events (this is a tentative schedule):
