You can find your child's schedule on the Genesis Parent Portal and print it out prior to coming or use your phone while moving about the building. In the summary page, please use the "LIST" pdf next to the print schedule option to view your child's classes by period. If you are looking at the list view on the summary page, please ensure it says "Marking Period 1" within the drop down menu.

- You will only be attending Semester One and Full Year Courses
- You will attend Physical Education (Semester One) during the period listed in your child's schedule. PE will be listed in the same period as a science lab or study hall. Labs and study halls will not meet.

There is no zero period in the schedule. Those parents with students in zero period will be encouraged to reach out directly to those teachers with any questions.

Here is a link to a map of the school to help you get around. We will have Peer Group Counselors throughout the building assisting those who may need help as they navigate the building. Enjoy the night!
