WELCOME TO PRESHO!

Welcome to the Presho area, the pride of the prairie! We are excited to host the 78th state tournament of the South Dakota Amateur Basketball Association. Our sincere wish is that you enjoy your time here as much as we will enjoy having you visit.

Presho, Kennebec, and Vivian are historically basketball towns. Many of us will be in the stands watching and cheering as talented athletes give your all in search of a state title. I applaud our team of volunteers who will be working behind the scenes to ensure the tournament goes smoothly.

As you enjoy your time here, please remember you are welcome to visit us again. We have many recreational and lifestyle opportunities in the area. Bring your family, tell your friends, come often and become part of our community!

Welcome and enjoy your stay!
Angela Ehlers, Mayor of Presho

Welcome all players and fans to

Stanley-Jones Mission Statement: Stanley-Jones Trust supports improvements to area health and medical care through philanthropic efforts.

Stanley - Jones Memorial Clinic

A gift to the citizens of Presho from the late

Maxine Stanley Jones

Maxine Stanley was born March 24, 1919 in Presho, the daughter of pioneer J.E. Stanely and May Stanley. She grew up in Lyman County and after her marriage to Marion "Casey" Jones resided in California until his death in 1980. Her lifelong interests here brought her home and she lived in Presho until her death on May 19, 1984. Her dream for a health facility to serve the needs of Presho and Lyman County is now a reality.
