Right to Know Professional Qualifications of Teachers and Paraprofessionals

Date: 08/01/2023

Dear Parents,

In compliance with the requirements of the Every Students Succeeds Act, the Early College School at Delaware State University would like to inform you that you may request information about the professional qualifications of your student's teacher(s) and/ or paraprofessional(s). The following information may be requested:

- Whether the student's teacher—
 - has met State qualification and licensing criteria for the grade levels and subject areas in which the teacher provides instruction;
 - is teaching under emergency or other provisional status through which State qualification or licensing criteria have been waived; and
 - is teaching in the field of discipline of the certification of the teacher.
- Whether the child is provided services by paraprofessionals and, if so, their qualifications.

If you wish to request information concerning your child's teacher's and/ or paraprofessional's qualifications, please contact the Head of School, at (302) 857-3510

Sincerely,

Dr. Evelyn A. Edney

Head of School

The Early College School at Delaware State University is an equal opportunity employer. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, disability, age or Vietnam Era veteran's status in employment or its programs and activities. The Early College School will not discriminate against any student in the admissions process because of race, creed, color, sex, disability, national origin or because a student's school district of residence has a per-student local expenditure lower than another student seeking admission. Inquiries regarding compliance with this policy may be directed to the Head of School of the Early College School.
