Going into a trade lets you follow a dream that is outside of the norm of a college education. Through all of the hardships you will endure this will develop your character. With that, the Sutherlin Blackberry Festival would like to help those pursuing their passion by supporting the winner of this scholarship.

On separate paper, please provide answers to the following essay questions, in order.

- What specific trade are you going into and what brought you to the interest of that trade?
- In your trade, what expenses will you incur for training and skill development?
- What is your financial need?
- What has been your impact on the community through your service to others?
- Tell us what you have done or will do to earn this scholarship.

Please include a copy of a transcript. Applicants will not be judged by GPA. Attendance may be a critical rule out element.

To be considered for a scholarship, requesting students must fill this application out to the best of their ability and return it before the deadline. If the student passes the first screening of applications, they will be called for an interview. Interviews will be designed to follow normal interview protocols for employment. If you have any question please call 541-580-8621.
