

Guidelines for Pajama Day

This day is designed to create school spirit and part of that is your cooperation in following the guidelines. Remember you are in school, not at home; even though you are wearing pajamas, your dress must be appropriate for being out in public.

- Footie Pajamas are okay. Feet should have some type of non-slip surface on the bottom.
- Must have top and bottom, no pajama dresses.
- No “back flap” PJs
- Loose sweats and t-shirt type shirts are okay. (heavier shirts, such as sweat shirts are okay)
- Any bottoms worn must go past the knee. (no shorts)
- There may NOT be any writing on the rear-end of the pants.
- Appropriate words down the leg okay - (school or sports team or brand names are okay)
- Logos must be appropriate.
- Tops must have sleeves; you may not wear a tank-top style top.
- Slippers are okay; bring appropriate shoes to go outside. (slippers with hard soles (like normal shoes) are okay for outside as long as toes and heels are covered.)
- Sneakers and comfortable shoes are okay - must have a toes and heels covered
- Robes are acceptable (uniform or dress code must be followed underneath robe)

All pajamas must be in good taste and NOT expose any skin that is from your shoulders to knee. COVER UP!
