

HOUMA CHRISTIAN SCHOOL celebrates

RED RIBBON WEEK

October 23 - October 27

MONDAY: “Double-Down Against Drugs” Students dress as twins! (Students can wear matching shirts with a friend with uniform bottoms.)

TUESDAY: “Don’t Be Tacky! Be Drug Free!” Students wear uniform shirts and bottoms. Students can wear tacky accessories and tacky hair. (No hair-dye, colored hair, or wigs.)

WEDNESDAY: “Be Red-y to Say No to Drugs” Students can wear red shirts and socks with uniform bottoms.

THURSDAY: “Life is a Journey; Travel Drug-Free!” Students wear uniform bottoms and dress as their favorite decade. (No hair dye, colored hair, or wigs)

FRIDAY: “Wake-Up Drug-Free!” Students can wear pajamas. Pajamas must cover the body, cannot be see-through, cannot have words on the back of pants, no nightgowns, and must be school appropriate length. (Students do not need to wear uniforms.)
