- 1. Parents live together. The legal residence of a minor child is where his or her parents reside.
- 2. Parents live apart but are not divorced. Legal residence is the residence of the parent with whom the child resides.
- 3. Parents are divorced with joint legal custody or joint decision-making authority. Residence of the minor child is the residence of the parent with whom the child resides.
- 4. Parents are divorced and one parent has been given sole or primary physical custody or sole or primary residential responsibility by a court. Legal residence of the minor child is the residence of the parent who has sole or primary custody or sole or primary residential responsibility.
- 5. Parents are divorced and court order is for equal or approximately equal periods of residential responsibility. The child's legal residence is as stated in the court order/parenting plan.
- The minor child is in the custody of a legal guardian appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction. Legal residence for the minor child is where the guardian resides.
