

Dear RHS families,

Kent Police are investigating a threat between a small group of students. The threat is made through a texting application that temporarily masks the identity of the individual. We believe all students involved have been identified and detained. There were no weapons on school grounds or any violent behavior, all students and staff are safe. The school day will continue as normal. The investigation is ongoing.

Thank you,
Dennis