Attendance Works

Advancing Student Success By Reducing Chronic Absence

Our school wide goals are to Increase Attendance and Increase Academics! Help us reach our goals by making sure kids are in school daily and on time. Students who miss or are tardy 18 or more days of school are considered Chronic Absent students.

ATA Teacher of the Year

If you happen to see kindergarten teacher, Mrs. Hall, congratulate her on being Allison Elementary School's Teacher of the Year, once again. If you see our cook, Ms. Missy, offer her a congratulations for being named Allison Elementary School's Service Personnel of the Year

Allison Elementary School

cordially invites you to the first annual

~ Spring Formal ~

Tuesday, March 19, 2024

- ≈ Dress in your favorite formal/picture day type attire
- ≈ Dine in style with an Italian lunch catered by your favorite ATA Chefs.
(Chicken Alfredo, salad, broccoli florets, dinner roll, homemade apple crisp, dinner mint, and milk variety)
- ≈ Enjoy music during lunch, line dancing during related arts activities, and chatting fancy with your friends

Chester City Park has asked ATA to help by having a Money War

March 1 – 29, 2024

There will be a "Classroom Jar" in each room for students to bring in their money throughout those dates. They can bring as much or as little as they want throughout the month of March (loose change and bills will be accepted).

*The class who brings in the most money wins a PIZZA PARTY!

*All proceeds will be donated to Chester City Park

Please know that fundraisers and donations given to charities or organizations are always optional.
