

Marathon Cheese Corporation

Scholarship Application

Deadline: May 7

Raymond and Marie Goldbach are founders of Marathon Cheese Corporation. The Raymond and Marie Goldbach Foundation will be sponsoring five $2,000 scholarships. These scholarships will be awarded to graduating seniors from Athens High School to be used in pursuit of a post-secondary degree. Preference will be given to students interested in agriculture or the dairy industry, but all students may apply.

Funds will be disbursed to the recipient and the post secondary institution to apply to tuition costs after successful completion of one semester at said institution, and upon a written request to the Athens Area Education Foundation. A copy of first semester grades and proof of enrollment for the second semester must accompany the letter of request.

Recipients should forward their proof of successful completion to:

Beth Steinke

Athens Area Education Foundation

P.O. Box F

Athens, WI 54411

Scholarship application and letters of recommendation should be turned into the School Counseling Office at Athens High School.
