Marysville School District to Host Job Fair for School District Jobs

The Marysville School District has job openings in schools and the district in several areas: food service workers, bus drivers, paraprofessionals, classroom teachers including special education teachers, substitute teachers, speech-language pathologists, school psychologists, occupational therapists, counselors, mental health therapists, and custodians. The District has planned a job fair to fill the open positions.

Msvl. WA -The Marysville School District welcomes community members to attend a special job fair for open positions in the Marysville School District on Saturday, October 28, 9:00 am - 1:00 pm, at the Marysville Pilchuck High School Campus Commons located at 5611 108th Street NE, Marysville.

"We hope this job fair will raise awareness in our community about positions available in Marysville and Tulalip serving children and schools," said Alvin Cooper, Executive Director of Human Resources. "We also seek individuals from all backgrounds to diversify our workforce further, mirroring our student population," he added. Interested parties are encouraged to bring a resume, personal identification, and supporting documents, including credentials or certifications relevant to the advertised positions.

For more information, contact the Marysville School District Human Resources Department at (360) 965-0070 or email hr@msd25.org.
