March

Elementary

Emma Black is always following our PBIS expectations both in and out of the classroom. She completes her work nice and neat, in a timely manner, and always gives it her best effort. She is a great listener and follows all directions.

Nominated by Ms. Dunaway

Jayci Lee is a hardworking student who always does her best. She is always willing to help others and she is a great friend to her classmates. Jayci is very sweet and respectful to her friends and teachers. I love having Jayci in my classroom.

Nominated by Mrs. Cooper

Cameron Page takes initiative to tidy up the whole classroom at the end of every day. During the hustle & bustle of packing up & greeting friends goodbye, he's working. He stacks the chairs that got missed, he gets the broom and sweeps, he organizes math manipulatives, dry erase markers, table caddies, anything! He asked if there was anything he could do to help get ready for our first night of after school clubs, and he's not even in that club!! He's reliable and dependable on a daily basis. His leadership in this way is thoughtful & blesses our classroom every single day.

Nominated by Mrs. McGinnis

Jr. High / High

Alexis Caldwell is a great asset to the 8th grade class. Her character is impeccable. She is well-mannered, kind, compassionate, and gives her all every day in ELA class. Alexis is a fantastic classmate, as she works well with her peers and is always willing to help others.

Nominated by Mrs. Hudson

Corbin Jodrey and Trinity Schick have stood out lately for their willingness to learn/work hard for a high math grade. They will help others if asked, and they will also ask for help so that they ensure they understand the material. They care about their grade and show common courtesies on a regular basis such as greeting me before AND after class. I enjoy having non-math related conversations with them, as they are nice to talk to. I have really enjoyed having them in class this year.

Nominated by Mrs. Ernst
