Mark Twain Elementary hired an art teacher for 7th and 8th grade students. 100% of 7th & 8th grade students participate in class. The TK-6 students were served by contracting with independent artists and music practitioners to facilitate lessons. Copperopolis Elementary was unable to fill the planned teacher position and allocated funds were used to contract with independent artists and music practitioners to facilitate lessons. Additionally, Copperopolis Elementary purchased a Kiln to prepare for future art lessons. The allocated funds for LEAP are far too small to hire staff, thus the funds were used to purchase art supplies.
