Professional development activities that address the prioritized needs

Describe activities

The District uses data to guide our professional development opportunities. The District uses a Professional Development Survey to see what the teaching staff perceptions are concerning their personal growth. The District also uses the following to guide what resources we use to provide professional development to the staff:

Recruiting and retaining effective teachers, particularly in high need subjects

Describe activities

Teachers are the most important in-school drivers of student achievement. Students with even one highly effective teacher are more likely to graduate. The District focuses on the following areas concerning recruiting and retaining effective teachers:

Salaries and other compensation

Assisting preschool children in the transition from early childhood education programs to local elementary school

Describe activities

In class they are practicing routines, learning how to line up, keep voices at appropriate levels, putting stuff away and working together, waiting to take turns, raising their hand to ask questions, writing their names, appropriate pencil grasp, we are learning to listen with our ears. Consistency in structure helps a child adjust and transition, they know what to expect that way. We use an appropriate voice level chart in my classroom as well as a Conscious
