

Pickaway County ESC Professional Development is offering the following winter class:
Shifting the Balance: 6 Ways to Bring the Science of Reading into the Upper Elementary Classroom
Starting January 2024

Your paragraph Participants will read, study, and discuss the text about shifts in reading instruction related to the Science of Reading, in the intermediate grades They will participate in 3 in-person classes, using the text and appropriate talking points to guide the discussion; they will consider the professional resource in relation to their classroom practices; and they will complete 3 monthly posts (“checkpoints”) via email to the instructor.

Monday, January 22, 2024 (in-person)

Sunday, February 4, 2024 (checkpoint)

Monday, February 26, 2024 (in-person)

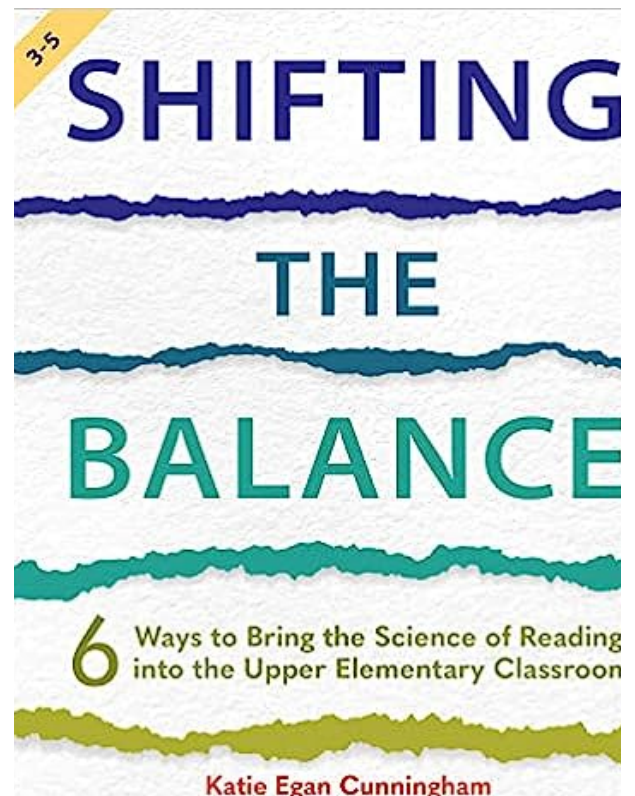

Sunday, March 10, 2024 (checkpoint)

Monday, March 25, 2024 (in-person)

Sunday, April 7, 2024 (checkpoint)

Ashland Credit available for 1 hour at $250. Information to sign up for Ashland credit will be shared when you contact Lisa.Heins@pickawayesc.org or call 740-474-7529.

Contact hours are available, also.

Classes taught by Jill Riddle