

Glen Arden Elementary
NEWS

Week of Jan. 15th - 19th

Good evening Glen Arden families,

Please be reminded that students and staff will be out of school tomorrow, Monday, January 15th, in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Day. Students and staff will return to school on Tuesday, January 16th.

On Friday, students brought home their BCS student devices. Please store the device in a safe and secure location. Please ensure student iPads and laptops are well cared for, and used only for school-related assignments. All devices should be returned on Tuesday when students return. Return all charging cables to school along with the device. Damage and lost fees can be found on page 5 of the BCS Student Device Guide.

Interested in Dual Language? Dual Language Applications for the 2024-2025 school year are now open and online. If you have a rising kindergarten student or know someone with a rising kindergarten student interested in dual language, please share the following link to the application <https://www.buncombeschools.org...> . Once completed, the application can be dropped off in the Glen Arden front office or emailed to jamie.slagle@bcsemail.org .

Buncombe County Schools will be hosting a BCS Support Staff Career Fair on Tuesday, January 23rd, from 1:00-3:00 pm, at Nesbitt Discovery Academy. Several departments will be in attendance at the fair including Maintenance, Transportation, Child Nutrition, as well as many more. If you are interested in the career fair or a position with BCS, please make plans to attend.

Currently, we have 2 instructional assistant positions available at Glen Arden. If you know someone who might be interested in the positions, please have him or her apply online. All BCS job vacancies are linked on the Buncombe County Schools website.

Please feel free to contact us with any questions by calling 654-1800 or emailing administration. We look forward to seeing everyone again this Tuesday, January 16th.

Have a good week ahead!

Go Rams!
