

COLVILLE HIGH SCHOOL
DAILY BULLETIN
FRIDAY OCTOBER 27, 2023 – National Black Cat Day

GENERAL INFORMATION

- The Video Production class is looking for students that would like to be interviewed about ways to improve CHS. If you are willing, please stop by the library at lunch today and talk with us about our school.
- We will be recognizing Veterans on November 9th at our annual assembly. If you know of a veteran that we could invite to the assembly, please let Mrs. Ressa know.
- The Voice of Democracy Patriotic Audio Essay contest has just been brought into the Counseling Office. The due date is October 31. This scholarship could be valued up to $35,000. Applications are available in the Counseling Office.
- Students, the grange parking lot across the highway is private property, and they have asked that we not use it.
- Not sure what you want to do for Halloween? Project Graduation's "Field of Screams" at the Haunted Corn Maze is your answer! With 10 scary stations and a cost of only $5, we will get to see how brave you are. Open from 6:00-9:00 at the Pumpkin Patch, Halloween has never been so fun! See you there!!

The spooky day is nearing, with costumes you can wear.
We want all our Hawks SOARing; here's some rules we need to share:
The dress code still applies, so tasteful costumes rule,
And while wearing masks is fun, don't cover your face at school.
Have a fun Halloween as you celebrate on Tuesday,
Show your Colville spirit. Go Crimson Hawks! Hooray!
