ARTICLE III DIOCESAN CONVENTIONS

Section 1. Annual

There shall be an Annual Convention of the Diocese at such time and place as may be designated by the Ecclesiastical Authority, in consultation with the Diocesan Council. The Ecclesiastical Authority with the consent of the Diocesan Council, may change either the time or the place of the Annual Convention, or both, provided that notice is given to delegates at least thirty days before the Convention.

Section 2. Special

A Special Convention may be called by the Ecclesiastical Authority with the consent of the Diocesan Council. Notice shall be given to delegates of the last Annual Convention and each body entitled to select delegates and to each organization entitled to delegates at least thirty days before the said Convention.

Section 3. Membership in Conventions

The Bishop, Bishop Coadjutor, Suffragan Bishops, and all Presbyters and Deacons canonically and physically resident in the diocese shall have seat and vote. Each Parish, Organized Mission, Parochial Mission and Mission Station is entitled to seat and vote by delegates to each Convention. ### Section 4. Quorum

A majority of lay delegates who are certified as provided by Canon and one-third of the Clergy entitled to vote, when duly assembled, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Section 5. Presiding Officer

The Diocesan Bishop shall be the President and presiding officer of every Convention, or may designate another Bishop of the Diocese. In the absence of any Bishop, the Chancellor shall act as presiding officer. If there be no Bishop or Chancellor present, then the Standing Committee, with the consent of the Diocesan Council, shall appoint a presiding officer of the convention. The presiding officer may appoint other persons to perform functions necessary to the Convention.

Section 6. Canons

The Annual Convention may, from time to time, enact Canons which shall stand as law of the Diocese provided that they are not in conflict with this Constitution or the General Convention Constitution and Canons.

ARTICLE IV GOVERNANCE

Section 1. Bishop

The Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese is vested in the Bishop; and as such the Bishop shall have such authority and duties as provided by the General Convention Constitution and Canons, this Constitution and the Diocesan Canons.

Section 2. Standing Committee

When the Diocese is without a Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor or each Bishop is unable to act as such, the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese shall devolve to the Standing Committee. Otherwise the Standing Committee shall act as a council of advice as requested by the Bishop and shall have such other duties and authority as provided by the General Convention Constitution and Canons, this Constitution and Diocesan Canons.

Section 3. Diocesan Council

The secular, financial, business and administrative affairs of the Diocese shall be determined and overseen by a Diocesan Council, which for state law purposes shall constitute the Diocese's Board of Directors. The Diocesan Council shall be constituted and have such duties and authority as set forth in the Diocese Canons.

Section 4. Officers

In addition to the Bishop, the officers of the Diocese shall be the Chancellor, Secretary, Treasurer and Registrar, whose selection, duties and authority shall be as provided by the Diocesan Canons. The Convention by Canon or Resolution may provide for such other officers, deputies and assistants as it may from time to time determine necessary for the administration of the Diocese.

Section 5. The South Dakota Episcopal Foundation

The South Dakota Episcopal Foundation, f/k/a The Chapter of Calvary Cathedral, a South Dakota nonprofit religious corporation, is hereby designated as the holding corporation for the property of the Diocese. It shall have such powers as are granted by law and Diocesan Canons which are not in conflict with the General Convention Constitution and Canons. The Convention by Canon shall provide for governance of the Corporation.

Section 1. Manner of Election

The election of a Bishop, Bishop Coadjutor, or Suffragan Bishop of this Diocese shall be made at an Annual Convention or by a Special Convention called for that purpose.

The selection shall be made by a concurrent vote of the clergy and laity, with the two orders voting separately by ballot. A concurrence of a majority of both orders is required for an election.

Section 3. Special Provisions

Prior to the balloting, the Convention, either Annual or Special, may by resolution provide for additional requirements not in conflict with the General Convention Constitution and Canons. The Convention may increase the percentage of each order required to elect a Bishop, Bishop Coadjutor, or Suffragan Bishop.

ARTICLE VI
STANDING COMMITTEE

Section 1. Membership

The Standing Committee shall be elected by Annual Convention and shall consist of eight members made up of four confirmed adult communicants of this Church in good standing and four canonically resident members of the clergy, of which no more than two shall be deacons. At the succeeding Annual Convention such vacancy shall be filled by election for the unexpired term. Service in the filling of an unexpired term shall not restrict such person from serving two full terms. Absence from two successive meetings of the Standing Committee, unless excused by the President or Bishop, shall be deemed to create a vacancy to be filled under this Section.

Section 3. Officers

The Standing Committee shall select from its membership a President and Secretary within ninety days after the annual Convention.

Section 4. Meetings

Meetings may be had upon the call of the President, the Bishop or two members. A quorum shall consist of a majority of qualified members, or as otherwise prescribed by the General Convention Constitution and Canons.

ARTICLE VII

Notice of the same shall be given by mailing a copy of the proposed amendments or alterations at least 15 days prior to the opening date of each Convention to the person in charge of the congregation or organization entitled to representation at the Diocesan Convention, who must distribute the same to the applicable delegates. Alternatively, actual receipt by hand-delivery or any electronic means shall be sufficient notice.

Section 2. Referral

All amendments and alterations, except those proposed by the Diocesan Council, must be first considered by the Chancellor or the Committee on Canons of the Convention to determine whether such are consistent with the General Convention Constitution and Canons and be reported to the Convention accordingly.

(b) These Special Rules may be amended or suspended after their adoption by the Convention by a two-thirds majority of the certified delegates voting in each order. (e) At the counting of the first through the third ballot, inclusive, the name of any nominee who fails to receive at least two votes in each order shall be dropped off all succeeding ballots. At the counting of the fourth ballot and all subsequent ballots the name of any nominee who fails to receive at least four votes in each order shall be dropped off all succeeding ballots.

(f) In the event that the total number of ballots cast in either order shall exceed the number of certified delegates in that order, the ballot shall not be announced, and the order in which the excessive ballot or ballots shall have been cast, shall ballot again.

(g) Any nominee is permitted to withdraw prior to the commencement of the printing of the next ballot, by notifying the Chair on the form provided for that purpose.
