פרשת נצבים - הדלקת נרות pm 6:59

One Mission, One Team

Parshat Nitzavim is a very unique parsha in which you, yes you, make a cameo. At this point in the Torah, Moshe Rabeinu is giving his final charges to Bnai Yisrael before he passes on the responsibility of leadership to Yehoshua. The parsha opens with Moshe saying,

“אַתֶּם נִצָּבִים הַיּוֹם בְּלִפְנֵי ה' אֱלֹהֵיכֶם”

(You stand today, all of you, before Hashem your G-d). When referring to all of you, Moshe leaves nobody out. He specifically mentions the heads of the Shvatim, the elders, the officers, and the head of each household. He further includes the children, wives, and even the woodchopper and water drawers. The pasuk went out of its way to show that literally everyone was standing there before it introduces a seemingly odd statement,

“כִּי אַתְּ-אֲשֶׁר יִשְׁנֹוּ פֹה עִמָּנוּ עַד הַיּוֹם לִפְנֵי ה' אֱלֹהֵינוּ וְאַתְּ אֲשֶׁר אֵינָנוּ פֹה עִמָּנוּ הַיּוֹם:”

(But with each of you standing here with us today before Hashem our G-d and those who aren't here today). Wait, what? We just took all that time to state everyone was there? Who wouldn't be there with them on that day? The people coming back late from summer vacation?

Rashi explains that this is referring to all future generations of Am Yisrael. He was talking about you! What was the message he was conveying? The message is about making choices, Moshe outlines the blessings that Am Yisrael would receive for following the Torah and, G-d forbid, the curses for not following it. We are not only responsible for ourselves, but for all of Am Yisrael. We are united with a single mission. Eli Rowe, the tremendous baal chesed, as well as founder of Hatzolah Air, accomplishes the near impossible every single day. He leads an organization that flies sick and injured people, at a moment's notice, around the world on multimillion-dollar jets without charging the patient. Anyone who knows anything about the costs of medicine and aviation can tell you that it is simply a miracle that this could be accomplished. I am not surprised in the least, because Eli understands the lesson of this parsha. He understands that no person can accomplish or fail on their own when there is, “One mission, One team”. As we read Parshat Nitzavim, we are reminded that unity, responsibility, and commitment are pivotal aspects of our covenant with knowledge and personal development. As we stand together at the dawn of a new school year, let us embrace the wisdom of this parsha and carry its teachings with us.

By fostering an environment of mutual support, recognizing the impact of our actions on future generations, and establishing a steadfast commitment to growth, we can ensure that our educational journey is not only successful but also meaningful and transformative.

May this new school year be blessed with unity, growth, and shared success, just as the Israelites stood together before God, reaffirming their covenant.

Shabbat Shalom!

Pre1a Newsletter.....

Dear Parents,

It was so good to welcome your daughters to Pre-1A. We are sure that this year will be filled with many rewarding learning experiences. We are very impressed at the way the girls adjusted to their first day of school.

Each day we start off by saying our תפלות (by davening): מודה אני, אדון עולם. אשר יצר, שמע. During the year we will be adding many more תפלות. We discussed the importance of good middot because as a בת ישראל we know that we should always try our best to act appropriately.

Our beautiful new classroom is divided into different areas so as to provide your daughter with various learning experiences. We have a special ראש השנה (Rosh Hashana) table filled with an assortment of items connected to the holiday e.g.: machzor, shofar, apples, honey, and books. We discussed that Hashem is all around us and that on Rosh Hashana He is watching us and counting all the mitzvot we do.

The girls love the Art Center because there they feel free to create their own masterpieces. The Art Center is complete with crayons, safety scissors, glue and collage materials. The girls can develop their creativity, fine motor skills and work independently or as part of a group.

It was wonderful watching your daughter adjusting to the class and making new friends as she sat in the Art Center working on a lovely honey dish to grace your Rosh Hashana table. This is to make sure you have a שנה טובה ומתוקה. Likewise, the girls all enjoyed decorating their own shofar, which is on display in class.

Finally, I would like to express my deep appreciation to all the Shulamith administration, faculty and maintenance staff who helped make the transition back to our main building such a pleasant and easy experience. Please feel free to visit,

We hope that this year will bring us all much נחת from your daughters!
