

The Leo Ferrell Memorial Rotary Scholarship 2025

The Leo Ferrell Memorial Rotary Scholarship was created by the Marion, Virginia Morning Rotary Club and the Ferrell family in memory of Leo Ferrell. Mr. Ferrell passed away in September of 2009 and was a member of the Marion community since 1962. Two of his primary passions were the game of golf and serving the Rotary Club where he was recognized as a Paul Harris Fellow in 2008. Mr. Ferrell was also General Manager/Head Golf Professional at Holston Hills Country Club in Marion from 1972 to 1977.

This one-time $2,500 scholarship seeks to identify and reward a member of a Southwest Virginia high school golf team who exemplifies leadership, academic excellence, sportsmanship, and community service.

Below are selection criteria for this scholarship award in order of importance.

- Academic career (grade point average)
