

In Library class, 1st and 2nd graders read How to Catch a Turkey, about a school that wants a turkey to be part of their school play. Then students worked with different building materials in STEM stations to come up with their own ideas for how to catch a turkey. They all showed off their excellent creativity and problem-solving skills!