Twin City Bike Collective is pleased to provide a bicycle for this production.

Twin City Bike Collective, a nonprofit organization created in 2017 by students at Summit School, repairs and donates high-quality bikes to Winston-Salem community members, because having a bike is important for recreation, exercise, and transportation.

We recently donated our 1000th bike!

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This MASSIVE undertaking would not be possible without so many people working behind the scenes, bringing snacks and waters for the long hours and months of rehearsal, delivering meals during tech week and double show days, ordering props and costumes for us on Amazon, managing the house for our performances, volunteering at the box office, participating in our fundraisers and much, much more.

We are proud to be a part of this community that supports the arts in public education.

Special thanks to:

The UNCSA School of Design and Production, Susan Crabtree, Mak Jordan, Bland Wade, Twin City Bike Collective, Little Theatre of Winston Salem, Tara Rasczenski, Winston Salem Theatre Alliance and Jamie Lawson for allowing us to share costume and prop resources as well as several beautiful painted drops you see in this production.

Thanks also to our army of parent volunteers for feeding, watering and caring for us during these crazy past few weeks:

Kristin Kinser, Jessi Wells, Metta Sama, Robert Mulhearn, Jeanne Lindenthal, Stephanie Ross, Amanda Deal, Susan Surratt, Alicia Freimuth, Maggi Jackson, Erik Brady, Stacie Flynt, Kelly Clegg, Emily Mellen, April Greenwood, Robyn Churn, Dawn Howard, Lenora McNamara, Stephanie Smith, Suzanne Sarfert, Nikki Francis and Alejandra Dore.

Particular shout out to Kristin Kinser for coordinating all of the parents!

Thank you to the staff at WSFCS, Reynolds High School and RJR Auditorium who were intimately involved in making this production a success:

Andrew Craft, Gretchen Devlin-Hall, Josh Settlemyre, Hannah Price, Amelia Hailey, Daniel Campbell, Amy Bith Harlee, Pam Kirkland, Calvin Freeman, Susan Annas, Jazeth Diaz, Trevor Anderson and Robert Kratz.

Thanks to Harry Corpening for always being in our corner, and supporting our school in numerous ways.

Thanks to all the other parents who ordered things on Amazon for us to help lighten the load, or contributed to any of the multiple fundraisers we participated in this year!

Thanks to the parents especially of our cast and crew, who probably have not seen or talked to your children much for about a month! We appreciate you sharing them with us and hope you are able to see how all of that time, dedication and hard work pays off!

While our school is an Arts Magnet, we are still very much a public high school and this program depend on the kindness, generosity and time dedicated from all of our volunteers and donors.

Last but not least thank you to my cast, crew and orchestra for sticking with it till the end. I told you it would be worth it! Have fun out there! Soak up every moment. We built the track. Now ride the ride.

Thank you all for making this one to remember.

With Gratitude,

Mr. Z
