Catching a kid excelling!

November 2024 CAKE students!

Amos Sowers - Windy Ridge

Amos is a hard-working student who takes the challenge of doing his best seriously. Amos constantly tries to improve upon his success. He takes active participation in his learning. While he is a shining example of a hardworking honeybee, he also puts his hive first. Amos is always looking out for other honeybees in the hive. He models integrity and sincerity in all that he does. Amos has been named the Honey Bee of the Day at Windy Ridge Elementary and the staff and students are excited to nominate him as a CAKE student of the month.

Jaxson Lear - Windy Ridge

Jaxson has been chosen by Windy Ridge as a November CAKE student. Jaxson has truly "strived to make the hive thrive". Throughout this past semester, he has shown improvements and works hard in class with every assignment. Jaxson has been able to reflect on his work, incorporate a positive mindset and go above and beyond. Furthermore, Jaxson is supportive of his classmates. He is a kind and caring classmate who wants everyone to succeed in and out of school. He represents the Honeybee expectations each and every day.

Radleigh Sabo- Capon Bridge Elementary

Radleigh is one of our shining stars in Kindergarten. She has a wonderful sense of humor and can make her friends laugh when they are playing. In the classroom, she is all about listening and being a model student with a great work ethic and desire to do well. Radleigh is always looking for way to contribute to class discussions and show kindness and respect to her classmates and teachers.

Dylan Cougar-Egress - Capon Bridge Elementary

Dylan is a remarkable young man with many positive character traits. He is the first student to volunteer to help others. He displays kindness and patience. He is motivated to learn and is diligent in completing assignments. He is confident, cheerful and dependable. He is always respectful and can be serious, but also has a wonderful sense of humor.

Kenadee Haines - Ice Mountain Elementary School

Kenadee is a joy to have in class. She always comes to school with a smile on her face and ready to learn. She is a friend to everyone and is always willing to help around the classroom when needed. Kenadee works hard and has a great attitude. She is a well-rounded student academically and socially. I look forward to seeing her grow throughout the rest of this year. Way to go Kenadee. Well deserved!

Jesse Osburne-Kirkham - Ice Mountain Elementary School

Jesse came to us from another district. When he arrived, he instantly fit into our classroom. He was happily surprised to already know a few students. Jesse comes to school happy and ready to learn. He participates well each day and contributes to our classroom community. He is a well-rounded student and we are so happy that he's in our classroom. Way to go Jesse. Well deserved!

Ryleigh Shears - South Branch Elementary

Ryleigh is an excellent Pre-K student. She always has a smile on her face and always tries her best during class activities. She is a good friend to her classmates and encourages them to be successful. She is doing a nice job of meeting her Pre-K goals. She excels in letter recognition and writing. Ryleigh is proud of her accomplishments. She follows classroom as well as school rules and model positive behavior for others. She is kind and is always respectful. Ryleigh has been a joy to have in class and she has had a positive impact on her classmates and staff. She has a bright future ahead of her.

Elizabeth Keister - South Branch Elementary

Elizabeth is an absolute pleasure to have in class. She is always kind and very respectful. She is a student who wastes no time. She comes to school prepared and ready to learn! She always participates in class discussions and works very well with classmates. Because of Elizabeth's wonderful work habits as a student, she excels academically! Her classmates know they can turn to her for any help or guidance. She is someone that others can count on and is a great leader!

Ella Ott-Long - 6th Grade Capon Bridge Middle School

Ella has earned the CBMS 6th Grade November CAKE award for her exceptional qualities of kindness, eagerness to learn, and dedication to hard work. Ella consistently shows kindness to classmates, offering help and encouragement to those around her, making our school a better place. She approaches each day with a positive attitude, ready to learn and engages in lessons with curiosity and enthusiasm. Her work ethic is outstanding—tackling challenges with determination and never shying away from putting in the effort to improve.

Kaitlyn Cates - 7th Grade Capon Bridge Middle School

Kaitlyn is an independent, self-motivated learner who is friendly to everyone!

Kandise Kesner - 8th Capon Bridge Middle School

Kandise is an upstanding student who takes great pride in being a PAWesome Bobcat at all times at CBMS. She asks questions to seek depth of learning, she works hard independently and collaboratively as a true team player, and she not only is a positive communicator to others but is an excellent role model to her friends and peers. Kandise is a positive team player and example to all that meet her. She is a leader and the definition of what it means to be a Bobcat!

Silas Nichols - 6th Grade Romney Middle School

Silas is such a gentleman. He is polite and gracious to both his peers and the staff. He's always willing to go the extra mile to help others. He has a fine work ethic and he raises the bar very high by always doing his very best. When he's not at school, he has a great time spending time and traveling with his family. He also enjoys special father son time playing basketball and hunting. Silas' future plans include going to culinary school. Rest assured, if he continues with those plans, the county is guaranteed to get a carefully prepared meal served up with a phenomenal smile.

Lacy Reneer - 7th Grade Romney Middle School

Lacy is a model student and is an exceptional choice for any student award. She is always on task, always respectful, and always willing to do what is needed for class. She is never disruptive and is an ideal student for any teacher or staff member to have in class. As with all of her classes, she maintains excellent grades, is engaged in after-school sports and activities, and always wears a smile. Lacy is a great example for how Romney Middle School students should act.

Brynley Michael- 8th Grade Romney Middle School

Brynley is paragon of stewardship and maintaining a positive environment within RMS. She is always on task, polite and is a hard worker. She is always willing to help staff or other students when needed. She makes sure her classwork is completed and is an excellent student.

Lila Eversole - 9th Grade Hampshire High School

Lila has quickly become indispensable to the success of the morning announcements. She has never declined to participate in any way and excels at reading the announcements, setting up the equipment, and editing the video clips! Lila gets along exceptionally well with all of her classmates and she is ALWAYS smiling. She works very hard and I am so blessed to have her in my broadcasting class! She is a wonderful addition to HHS.

Wyatt Thorne - 10th Grade Hampshire High School

Wyatt is a polite, intelligent young man. He is very respectful and is a great addition to our Building and Maintenance Operations CTE program. He is an active member of our cross-country team and recently won 13th place at the state meet. Wyatt is always kind and is known to hold doors open for others, help his peers and more around the school.

Bailey Nichols - 11th Grade Hampshire High School

Bailey is a hardworking student. She was very talented in art class. She gives everything she has. She attempts her best effort, often going above and beyond what is asked of her. Bailey is sweet to everyone, has a kind heart, and is extremely polite. She is also an exceptional, dedicated athlete who recently came in 13th place at the State Cross Country Meet. She is a very quiet young lady, often taking in what others have to say - but when she does speak, she always conducts herself with maturity and kindness.

Addyson Brill - 12th Grade Hampshire High School

I am a teacher at Hampshire High School and have had the pleasure of working with Addy throughout her high school career. I've watched her develop into a well-rounded and mature young woman who will accomplish many great things in her lifetime. She is a talented and hard-working individual who finds joy in helping others. Addy has impressive people skills and can make anyone feel comfortable around her. Throughout her high school career, Addy has excelled in every field of her education and has taken on multiple extracurricular activities. In her senior year, Addy is President of the National Honor Society, Editor of yearbook, and a Varsity Libero for Volleyball, along with taking numerous higher-level courses. She has become proficient at juggling multiple workloads. I am very pleased to recommend Addy for the cake award.

Congratulations!!!
