

CAKE

Catching a kid excelling!

March 2025 CAKE students!

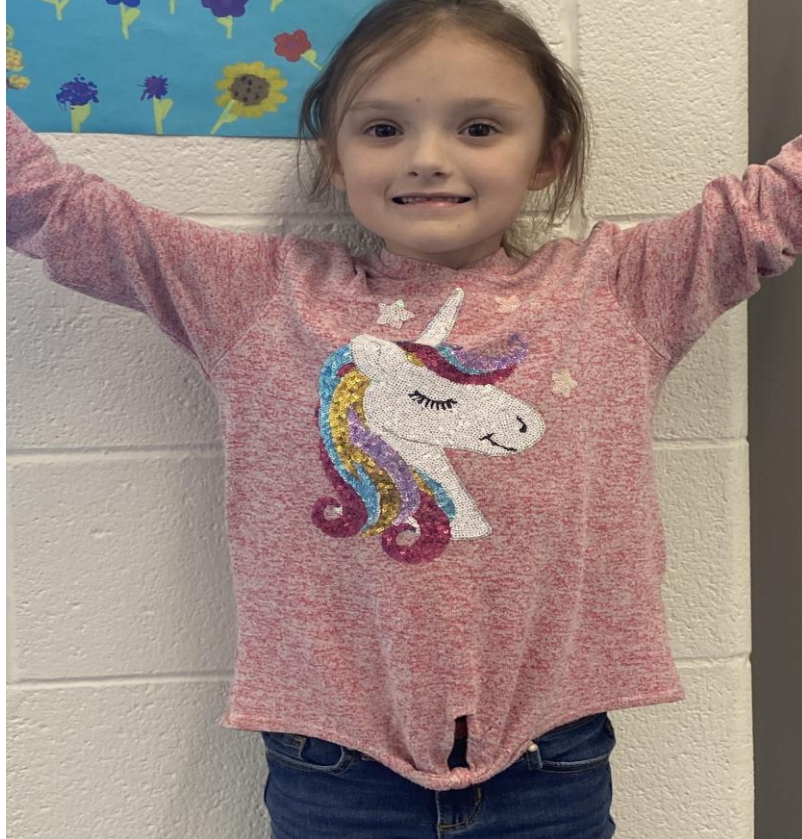

Bethany Timbrook - Capon Bridge Elementary

Bethany is the example to follow in both academics and citizenship. She is helpful and kind to everyone in our classroom, 5th grade, and school community without exception. She is always the first one to volunteer to help in every way possible. She is also an excellent student—she works hard, pays attention, and gives her best effort to every assignment--she always seems eager to learn and be a friend. It is a joy to be around her.

Marlie Johnson - Capon Bridge Elementary

Marlie is a very caring, kind and creative young girl. She is always trying her best, working hard and helping classmates with whatever they need. She sets high goals for herself and does her best to achieve them. She is continuing to show growth in both math and reading on IReady and has really improved this year building her confidence.

Ariella Mosholder - Ice Mountain Elementary School

Ariella has such positive and wonderful energy. She is always appreciative over big things and little things. She consistently uses her manners even if she is wrong. She is always willing to help a student with something they dropped, spilled, lost, and even when they are just sad. She includes everyone and never has a mean thing to say about anyone. Besides always having a smile on her face, she gives the most genuine and heartfelt hugs.

Tyler Martin - Ice Mountain Elementary School

Tyler goes above and beyond for his teachers and especially his classmates. He randomly brings in treats for his classmates and offers to get anything we (his teachers) need for the classroom. He is one you can count on to help, as well as he asks for help. He enjoys explaining a lesson to his classmates and helping them with their assignments if needed. He tries and gives his best in everything that he does. His happy nature and infectious smile make anyone feel better. I am fortunate to have Tyler in my class.

Layken Caldwell - Ice Mountain Elementary School

(Layken Caldwell was a CAKE student from February was unable to attend the March 3, 2005 meeting. Layken was chosen because she is an exceptional first grade student at Ice Mountain. She works very hard on all assignments. She is outgoing and always willing to lend a hand. She asks her teachers multiple times if she can help throughout the day. At recess, she looks for people who may need a friend and asks them to play. Her kindness radiates throughout the school. She enjoys playing organized soccer outside of school and participates in gymnastics. She is a well-rounded student who is outstanding!

Paxton Lafollette - South Branch Elementary

Paxton has made tremendous growth this school year. He focuses on the lesson/skill at hand and makes every effort to master it. He also reminds classmates of school procedures and is very helpful in the classroom. Paxton always seems to try his best with whatever he does.

Ivy Gebert - South Branch Elementary

Ivy is a very proactive student that takes initiative in her work and in her classroom. She shows responsibility for her classwork and has taken the leadership role of preparing the board for the next day and being an assistant teacher. She is a very positive person. She makes goals for herself and helps our class achieve the goals we have made. She helps keep us accountable with our lead measures, knows how to put first things first, and is always seeking out win-win solutions. Ivy is a great listener and works well with her classmates. She is a great leader through her character, actions, and academics.

Kinsleigh Wyatt - Windy Ridge

Kinsleigh is a 2nd grade student in Mrs. Ray's 2nd grade class at Windy Ridge Elementary. Kinsleigh is a hard worker, who is determined to succeed in all she does. She goes above and beyond in her work. She is the first student to hop out of her seat to assist Mrs. Ray with anything from passing out papers to picking up trash that is on the floor. She is a friend to all of her classmates and even looks out for younger students. Kinsleigh is a perfect example of what a Windy Ridge Honeybee should be.

Dallas Mose - Windy Ridge

Dallas has been selected as Mrs. Buck's second grade class CAKE student. Dallas is a kind student to everyone. She always has a smile and works hard in all she does. She strives to do her best always. She is a great peer helper and includes others in outside recess activities. Her favorite thing to do is math problems. According to her she likes the up and down problems but not the side to side ones. This little girl is one amazing honey bee!!

Balin Dorsch - 6th Grade Capon Bridge Middle School

Balin demonstrates outstanding dedication and excellence in school. He consistently demonstrates preparedness, respect, a strong willingness to learn, and a commitment to safety. His positive attitude and desire to do well in school make him a positive role model for others. Congratulations, Balin! Keep up the great work!

Haley Benson - 7th Grade Capon Bridge Middle School

Haley transitions safely through the halls, follows classroom safety rules, and cares about the well-being of others. She's also conscientious and hardworking.

Addison Blocker - 8th Capon Bridge Middle School

Addison is a Bobcat that carries the essence of cool, calm, and collected in the spaces that she enters. She encourages her friends and classmates to accomplish challenging tasks, brings hard work in the form of creativity to her projects, and makes sure to ask questions in the face of uncertainty. Addison is not a person who gives up and remains steadfast in her journey to become the best version of herself. Thank you for striving to bring your Bobcat best!

Asher Mowery - 6th Grade Romney Middle School

Asher is a polite fellow who treats both peers and staff with respect. He does a great job staying on top of his assignments and on the honor roll. He works hard, honing his athletic skills in basketball and football. When he has free time, he enjoys spending it on trips with his family.

Coraline Connolly - 7th Grade Romney Middle School

Coraline is a hard-working student who always strives to do her best. She comes to class prepared, is always on task, and is actively engaged throughout the class period. She is well-mannered and respectful. She showed tremendous growth on her latest Math and Reading i-Ready Diagnostic. Coraline is a great example of a student who shows her Pioneer Pride! 8th Grade.

Nathaniel Stokes - 8th Grade Romney Middle School

Nathaniel is incredibly helpful in my class and is always willing to go "above and beyond" if something needs to be done. He also keeps up with his work and is never a disruption.

Lainah Gayle - 9th Grade Hampshire High School

Lainah always enters and exits the class with a smile. Lainah can be counted on to participate in class giving well thought out answers with detail. She takes her classwork seriously and always puts forth her best effort. She is honest and thoughtful towards others making her an easy choice for CAKE!

Nathaniel Hitaffer - 10th Grade Hampshire High School

Nathaniel is a hard-working young man who always tries his hardest. He is always willing to put in the extra work it takes to be successful in class. His teachers speak highly of him. He has a kind, gentle nature and is always friendly.

Daniel Fuechsel-Blunt - 11th Grade Hampshire High School

Daniel was caught being very helpful around the school recently. Hampshire High has been short-staffed on custodians, and he helped clean classrooms around the school. He is a helpful young man.

Sasha Rohr - 12th Grade Hampshire High School

Sasha is always present, always prepared and fully participates in class. She is willing to answer questions when others are not and is very polite and always smiling.

Congratulations!!!
