

Matt Turner

Matt has been married to his wife, Stephanie Turner, for 17 years. Together they have three children: Shane (23) who graduated from Maumelle Charter in 2019, Addison (15) who is currently in 9th grade at Maumelle Charter, and Cole (7) who is currently in 1st grade at Maumelle Charter.

When asked why he wanted to serve on the APCS board of trustees, he responded, "Being around the school for 12 plus years and seeing how much it has grown. I am excited about the future of our school and am looking forward to being able to help with all that it entails to further its growth."

Matt currently works at UAMS as a Biomedical Equipment

Technician III which he ensures repairs and maintenance on a wide variety of medical equipment in and out of surgical areas are completed within quality and compliance guidelines. He also reviews service contracts, quotes for new medical equipment purchases and preforms cost savings review for purchases.

When time allows, he also works for a locally owned driving school as the former Instructor Trainer and current Court Mandated Defensive Driving Course Instructor, and Behind the Wheel Driving Instructor. As an instructor he can work one-on-one with each student which allows him to assess and comfort all fears related to the aspects of driving.

In addition, he really enjoys coaching and is an assistant Softball Coach for the MCHS Lady Falcons. He has coached or assistant coached many years when his children have been involved in recreational sports. As well as volunteering many times with his church, New Life Church, during VBS, storm clean up, and annual community outreach events.
