

Floyd and Leila Wagoner Agricultural Scholarship

This scholarship was established to honor Floyd and Leila Wagoner, longtime farming residents of the Hiawatha, Kansas area.

This is a $5,000 one-time non-renewable scholarship for a Hiawatha USD 415 high school graduating senior pursuing a 4-year bachelor's degree in one of the Kansas State University Agribusiness programs in Manhattan, Kansas.

If there is no qualifying current year graduate applicant in any one year, a previously awarded first-year scholarship recipient may apply for an additional $5,000 one-year scholarship extension to their established Agribusiness BS degree program at Kansas State, provided they have maintained a grade point average of 2.5 or higher in their first year of the program. Previous recipients will be notified of the option to apply for a second-year scholarship with an application deadline of August 1st.

Funding may be increased or terminated at any time at the discretion of Marilyn Pike or Thomas Pike.

The Hiawatha USD 415 Educational Foundation manages this scholarship. Questions may be emailed to the foundation administrator at edfoundation@usd415.org. The scholarship committee of the USD 415 Educational Foundation is responsible for selecting, paying, and monitoring the fulfillment of the scholarship criteria for the scholarship recipient.
