

Harassment, Intimidation and Bullying

The board of education believes that a safe and civil environment in school is necessary for students to learn and achieve high academic standards. Since students learn by example, school administrators, faculty, staff, and volunteers are required to demonstrate appropriate behavior, treating others with civility and respect, and refusing to tolerate harassment, intimidation or bullying. Harassment, intimidation or bullying, like other disruptive or violent behaviors, is conduct that disrupts both a student's ability to learn and a school's ability to educate its students in a safe environment. Therefore, the school district will not tolerate acts of harassment, intimidation or bullying.

The board of education expects all students to treat each other with civility and respect and not to engage in behavior that is disruptive or violent. The board expects students to conduct themselves in keeping with their level of maturity, with a proper regard for the rights and welfare of other students, for school personnel, for the educational purpose underlying all school activities, and for the care of school facilities and equipment.

The standards of character education are an essential component of the Boonton Township School District's Code of Conduct. The board believes that with the appropriate infusion of character education into the school curriculum, modeling of appropriate behavior by adults; support and assistance of students in school, the community and home; our students will achieve the above standards of character education.

The board prohibits acts of harassment, intimidation or bullying against any student. School responses to harassment, intimidation and bullying shall be aligned with the board approved code of student conduct which establishes standards, policies and procedures for positive student development and student behavioral expectations on school grounds, including on a school bus or at school sponsored functions. The Superintendent/Principal shall be responsible for ensuring the prompt investigation and response to all reports of harassment, intimidation and bullying committed on school grounds, at school activities and on school buses. In addition, the Superintendent/Principal shall ensure that this policy is applied to incidents of harassment, intimidation and bullying that are committed off school grounds in cases where a school employee is made aware of such actions. The Superintendent/Principal has the right and authority to impose a consequence on a student for conduct away from school grounds that is consistent with the board's approved code of student conduct, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.1 and N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.6.

This authority shall be exercised only when it is reasonably necessary for the student's physical or emotional safety, security and well-being or for reasons relating to the safety, security and well-being of other students, staff or school grounds, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:25-2 and 18A:37-2, and when the conduct which is the subject of the proposed consequence materially and substantially interferes with the requirements of appropriate discipline in the operation of the school. The board directs the Superintendent/Principal or his or her appropriately trained and qualified designee to develop detailed regulations suited to the age level of the students and the physical facilities of the individual schools.

Bullying is unwanted, aggressive behavior that may involve a real or perceived power imbalance. "Harassment, intimidation or bullying" is defined as any gesture, any written, verbal or physical act, or any electronic communication, whether it be a single incident or a series of incidents, that is reasonably perceived as being motivated either by any actual or perceived characteristic, such as race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or a mental, physical or sensory disability, or by any other distinguishing characteristic, that takes place on school grounds, at any school-sponsored function or on a school bus, or off school grounds, in accordance with law, that substantially disrupts or interferes with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of other students, and that:

Any school employee, board member, contracted service provider, student, visitor or volunteer who has witnessed, or has reliable information that a student has been subject to harassment, intimidation or bullying, must report the incident to the building principal or his/her designee.

The following procedures shall apply to the reporting of incidents of harassment, intimidation and bullying committed by an adult or youth against a student:

- A. All acts of harassment, intimidation, or bullying shall be reported verbally to the school principal on the same day when the school employee or contracted service provider witnessed or received reliable information regarding any such incident;

The principal shall inform the parents or guardians of all students involved in the alleged incident, and may discuss, as appropriate, the availability of counseling and other intervention services. The principal shall keep a written record of the date, time, and manner of notification to the parents or guardians; and

All acts of harassment, intimidation, or bullying shall be reported in writing to the school principal within two school days of when the school employee or contracted service provider witnessed or received reliable information that a student had been subject to harassment, intimidation, or bullying.

The written report shall be on a numbered form developed by the Department of Education. The report shall be kept on file at the school but shall not be included in any student record, unless the incident results in disciplinary action or is otherwise required to be contained in a student's record under State or federal law. A redacted copy of the form that removes all student identification information shall be confidentially shared with the board of education after the conclusion of the investigation, if a hearing is requested by a parent or guardian.

Range of Ways to Respond to Harassment, Intimidation or Bullying

The board of education recognizes that some acts of harassment, intimidation or bullying may be isolated incidents requiring that the school officials respond appropriately to the individuals committing the acts and provide support programs for victims. Other acts may be so serious or parts of a larger pattern of harassment, intimidation or bullying that they require a response either at the classroom, school building or school district levels or by law enforcement officials.

In considering whether a response beyond the individual is appropriate, the principal, in conjunction with the school anti-bullying specialist shall consider the nature and circumstances of the act, the degree of harm, the nature and severity of the behavior, past incidences or past or continuing patterns of behavior, and the context in which the alleged incident(s) occurred. Institutional (i.e., classroom; school building; school district) responses include:

- G. Small or large group presentations for staff, students, and the community for fully addressing a positive school climate and culture as well as the issues surrounding harassment, intimidation and bullying in the school community; and
- H. The involvement of law enforcement officers, including school resource officers.

For every incident of harassment, intimidation or bullying, the district shall respond to the individual who committed the act. Responses may include:

- A. Individual responses can include positive behavioral interventions (e.g., peer mentoring, short-term counseling, life skills groups) and punitive actions (e.g., detention, in-school or out-of-school suspension, expulsion);
- B. Classroom responses can include class discussions about an incident of harassment, intimidation or bullying, role plays, research projects, observing and discussing audio-visual materials on these subjects and skill-building lessons in courtesy, tolerance, assertiveness and conflict management;
- C. School responses can include theme days, learning station programs, parent programs and information disseminated to students and parents, such as fact sheets or newsletters explaining acceptable uses of electronic and wireless communication devices;
- D. District-wide responses can include community involvement in policy review and development, professional development programs, adoption of curricula and school-wide programs and coordination with community-based organizations (e.g., mental health; health services; health facilities; law enforcement; faith-based).

The range of ways in which the school shall respond once an incident of harassment, intimidation or bullying is identified shall be defined by the principal in conjunction with the school anti-bullying specialist, and shall include an appropriate combination of counseling, support services, intervention services, and other programs as defined by the commissioner.

- A. Prohibits harassment, intimidation or bullying on school property, at a school-sponsored function or on a school bus;

N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.7 (a), 2., xi. requires that parents or guardians requesting a hearing before the district board of education shall file the request no later than 60 calendar days after the written information about a harassment, intimidation, or bullying investigation is received by the parents or guardians. A district may adopt more stringent provisions than those required. A district is required to provide notice of its policy in any of its publications that contain school rules, and in any student handbook.

N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15.3 (P.L. 2010, c.122, Section 16) requires that district policy include provisions for appropriate responses to harassment, intimidation and bullying as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14, that occurs off school grounds, where a school employee is made aware of such actions. The responses must be consistent with the code of student conduct and the board policy on harassment, intimidation and bullying.

N.J.S.A. 18A:37-16 (see P.L. 2010, c.122, Section 13) prohibits retaliation and false accusations by a board member, school employee, student or volunteer against a victim, or person with reliable information about an act of harassment, intimidation or bullying. It also requires reporting of incidents by a board member, school employee, contracted service provider, student or volunteer with reliable information that a student has been subject to harassment, intimidation, or bullying. Reporting shall be to the designated school official, or any school administrator or safe schools resource officer.

A board member or school employee who promptly and properly reports an incident of harassment, intimidation or bullying, is protected from legal action for damages arising from any failure to remedy the incident. A school administrator who receives a report and fails to conduct an investigation, or who should have known of an incident but fails to take sufficient action to minimize or eliminate the harassment, intimidation, or bullying, may be subject to disciplinary action.

N.J.S.A. 18A:37-17 (see P.L. 2010, c. 122, Section 14) requires the principal of each school to appoint from existing trained and qualified staff a school anti-bullying specialist and details the responsibilities of the anti-bullying specialist. Additionally, the law requires the Superintendent/Principal to appoint a district anti-bullying coordinator and lists the responsibilities pertaining to the district's bullying policy and programs, and requires the anti-bullying coordinator to meet at least two times a year with the school anti-bullying specialists.

N.J.S.A. 18A:37-18 provides that the school statutes involving harassment, bullying, and intimidation do not prevent a victim from seeking redress under any other available law.

N.J.S.A. 18A:37-19, adopted in 2002 (P.L. 2002, c.83, s.7.) provides for a school district that incurs additional costs to implement the bullying law, to apply to the Commissioner of Education for reimbursement and requires the Department of Education, in consultation with the Division on Civil Rights in the Department of Law and Public Safety to develop a guidance document and to maintain it on their respective websites.

N.J.S.A. 18A:37-21 (P.L. 2010, c. 122, Section 18) requires each school to form a school safety team which at a minimum includes the principal or his or her designee (who shall be a senior school administrator), a teacher, the anti-bullying specialist, a parent/guardian of a student in the school and other members as determined by the principal. The school safety team is required to meet at least twice a year, and its responsibilities are enumerated and include the review and analysis of bullying reports; investigations; school bullying program and policy assessment and revision; training and staff development programs; community education; and district data accumulation and reporting. Parents may not participate in certain activities, including those that would compromise student confidentiality.

N.J.S.A. 18A:37-26 requires the Commissioner of Education to establish inservice workshops and training programs to train selected public school employees to act as district anti-bullying coordinators and school anti-bullying specialists. (P.L. 2010, c. 122, Section 23)

N.J.S.A. 18A: 37-28 (P.L. 2010, c. 122, Section 25) establishes a "Bullying Prevention Fund" to be used for grants to school districts to provide training on harassment, intimidation, and bullying prevention and on the effective creation of positive school climates.

N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.1(a-d) requires district boards of education to develop and implement a code of student conduct, and sets forth the purposes of the code, the minimum standards to be included in the code, and requires due process procedures and policy for students and their families in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.2 through 7.6.

N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.5 governs district authority for student conduct away from school grounds.

N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.7 governs the development, adoption and implementation of a policy prohibiting harassment, intimidation, and bullying pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15. The nature of a student's disability, if applicable, must be considered to the extent relevant.

N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.7 (a), 2., iii requires the policy to state that bullying is unwanted, aggressive behavior that may involve a real or perceived power imbalance.

Other Reasons:

Districts are reminded that they must develop a code of student conduct in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.1. The range of school responses to harassment, intimidation and bullying shall be aligned with and not replace the district's code of student conduct.

N.J.S.A. 18A:6-112 requires that teaching staff receive professional development on suicide prevention and instruction on the relationship between the risk of suicide and incidents of harassment, intimidation and bullying. In addition, staff shall receive information on reducing the risk of students who are identified as at high risk of suicide.

N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 requires newly elected or appointed board of education members and charter school trustees to complete training on harassment intimidation and bullying within one year of being newly elected or appointed or being re-elected or re-appointed to the board. A board member shall be required to complete the program only once.

N.J.S.A. 18A:17-46 requires the Superintendent/Principal to report two times each school year, between September 1 and January 1 and between January 1 and June 30, at a public hearing, all acts of violence, vandalism and harassment, intimidation or bullying which occurred the previous reporting period. The elements of the report are enumerated such as the number, status and nature of the incidents. It also requires the board to report once each reporting period the information to the Department of Education. The DOE shall use the information to "grade" each school and the district. The grades must be posted on the homepage of the school's and district's websites.

N.J.S.A. 18A:26-8.2 requires "school leaders," meaning a school district staff member who holds a position that requires the possession of a Superintendent/Principal, principal or supervisor endorsement, complete training that includes information on the prevention of harassment, intimidation, and bullying.

N.J.S.A. 18A:37-19 (P.L. 2010, c. 122, Section 26) requires all schools to observe a "Week of Respect" on the first Monday in October each year and provide age appropriate instruction focusing on preventing harassment, intimidation and bullying during that week, as well as throughout the school year.

N.J.S.A. 18A:37-17 requires that the district provide training to staff, students and volunteers who have significant contact with students, on the district harassment, intimidation and bullying policy; preventing bullying; and district reporting procedures.

N.J.S.A. 18A:37-22 (P.L. 2010, c. 122, Section 19) requires all candidates for teaching certification who have completed a teacher preparation program at a regionally accredited institution of higher education to have satisfactorily completed a program on harassment, intimidation and bullying training. Also, the State Board must require public school teachers to complete at least two hours of instruction on harassment, intimidation, or bullying prevention in each professional development period as part of the professional development requirement.

N.J.S.A. 18A:37-22 (P.L. 2010, c. 122, Section 20) requires all candidates for administrative and supervisory certification to have satisfactorily completed a program on harassment, intimidation and bullying training.

N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.7 (a), 2., ix, (1) gives the board the discretionary option to include in the policy a process prior to initiating an investigation by which the principal, or his or her designee, in consultation with the anti-bullying specialist, makes a preliminary determination as to whether a reported incident or complaint, assuming all facts presented are true, is a report within the scope of N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14. The statute has no provision for a preliminary determination by the principal or his or her designee, in consultation with the anti-bullying specialist.

N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.7 (a), 2., ix, (2-4) investigate a complaint or report of harassment, intimidation, or bullying, occurring on district board of education school buses, at district board of education school-sponsored functions, and off school grounds involving a student who attends an approved private school for students with disabilities (PSSD). The investigation conducted by the district board of education's anti-bullying specialist shall be in consultation with the approved PSSD.

N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.7 (a), 2., xi requires that the PSSD report to the district board of education the results of the harassment, intimidation, or bullying investigation within five school days after the investigation. In addition, information about the investigation must be provided in writing to the parents or guardians of students who are party to a harassment, intimidation, or bullying investigation within five school days after the investigation.

N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.7 (a), 2., xi requires any request by the parents or guardians for a hearing before the district board of education concerning the written information about a harassment, intimidation, or bullying investigation, shall be filed with the district board of education secretary no later than 15 than 60 calendar days after the written information is received by the parents or guardians. The hearing shall be held within 10 business days of receipt of the request.

Gebser v. Lago Vista Independent School District 524 U.S. 274 (1989) United States Supreme Court addresses the standard by which a district will be held liable for sexual harassment of a student by a school employee under Title IX --requires actual notice and deliberate indifference.

Davis v. Monroe County Board of Education 526 U.S. 629 (1999) United States Supreme Court establishes the standard under which a school district may be liable under Title IX for sexual harassment of one student by another student. The district will be liable for damages only where the school officials are proven to have been deliberately indifferent to harassment of which it is actually aware. The harassment must be "severe, pervasive and objectively offensive."

Saxe v. State College Area School District 240 F.3d 200 (3rd Cir 2001) A Pennsylvania school district's anti-harassment policy was overly broad and therefore violated the Constitutional guarantee of freedom of speech.

L. W. v. Toms River Regional Schools Board of Education 189 N.J. 381 (2007) The New Jersey Supreme Court held that the standard under which a school district may be liable under the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination for student-on-student bullying or harassment is not the Title IX deliberate indifference standard, but is rather the same standard used under the NJLAD for hostile work environment cases. A district will be judged by whether the district's response met the "reasonable person" test: what would a reasonable person (teacher, supervisor, vice principal, principal, etc.) do in a similar situation. School districts will be shielded from liability under NJLAD when their preventive and remedial actions are reasonable in light of the totality of the circumstances.
