MRS. GREIVE'S CORNER

Dear Families:

Happy FALL Break! Can you believe we have finished the first 9 weeks of school? Congratulations to students, families, and staff for a successful first 9 weeks!

Thank you to ALL who participated in the Rett Syndrome fundraiser! We enjoyed wearing yellow and purple today to support Emma Black.

Students also had fun wearing their favorite hat to school by paying $1.00 to donate towards Emma's fundraising goal of $5,000.00.

When we return from fall break, we will:

- Recognize September Award Winners
- Learn about fire prevention
- Have the Great Shake Out Drill
- Gear up for Parent-Teacher Conferences
- Participate in Red Ribbon Week

We will have parent teacher conferences on our next eLearning day, Wednesday, October 25th. Teachers will send schedules as we get closer to the date but wanted to share the date for those planning in advance. Report Cards will be shared during conferences.

We would like to invite all families to join our Community Council. We do this each and every year as we focus on school improvement. If you would like to join, please follow the directions below:
