MRS. GREIVE'S CORNER

Dear LPS Families:

Welcome back from winter break! I hope everyone enjoyed the holidays. Students have settled back into the school routine and enjoyed seeing their friends and teachers.

Quarter two and semester one report cards are being sent home with students today. Your child is also bringing home their mid year benchmark assessment results and information on how to access PowerSchool, our student information system. I would encourage you to look over all of the information, celebrate your child's successes and set some goals for the second semester. Please reach out to your child's teacher if you have any questions.

I will be recognizing the December Award Winners next week. Teachers select one student in their class each month for Math Master, Rockin' Reader, Awesome Author, and Principal's Pride. It is so fun to celebrate students' successes! I will post pictures to Class Dojo, our website, Facebook and X (formerly known as Twitter). Please see the complete list of winners in next week's newsletter.

Lawrenceburg Primary School Mission Statement

We believe all students deserve to be surrounded by adults that value each student's individual learning potential. We believe all students deserve dedicated teachers who are positive role models and who engage their students in a variety of researched based teaching. We believe all students should receive extra help and time to experience school success by providing a low student/teacher ratio.

MONTHLY CHARACTER TRAIT

The character trait for the month of JANUARY is "TRUSTWORTHINESS." This means being honest, keeping promises, and also making sure that others can depend on you. A trustworthy person is someone you can count on to do what is right. By being trustworthy means that you have earned the trust of other people. If you are trustworthy, you always do your best to keep promises. Other people know that they can count on you to do what you say you will do. It is also important to know which people you can trust. A trustworthy person is someone you can count on to never intentionally hurt you with unkind words or actions.

A few suggestions to show your children what it feels like to practice this character trait is as follows:

- Volunteer with your child at a nursing home, soup kitchen or an outreach shelter, etc.
- You and your child can save money to help someone in need.
- Collect coats, canned goods, or clothing to donate to the needy.
- Make a visit to a homeless shelter.
- Help an elderly person with errands or chores.
- Volunteer with the Special Olympics, Relay for Life, March of Dimes, or Big Brothers/Big Sisters, etc.
