additional information. If you have any questions, please reach out to me.

Lost & Found - We have a lot of items in our Lost & Found area. Please encourage your child to look there for missing items. All items will be donated if they are not claimed by Friday, Feb. 2, 2024.

As the temperatures drop, it's crucial to ensure that your child is adequately dressed for recess. A coat is essential, and if your child doesn't have one, they may need to stay inside during recess for their comfort and well-being. Additionally, please check that your child's coats and hoodies are labeled with their first and last name to prevent any mix-ups.

Enjoy your long weekend!

MONTHLY CHARACTER TRAIT

The character trait for the month of JANUARY is "TRUSTWORTHINESS." This means being honest, keeping promises, and also making sure that others can depend on you. A trustworthy person is someone you can count on to do what is right. By being trustworthy means that you have earned the trust of other people. If you are trustworthy, you always do your best to keep promises. Other people know that they can count on you to do what you say you will do. It is also important to know which people you can trust. A trustworthy person is someone you can count on to never intentionally hurt you with unkind words or actions.

A few suggestions to show your children what it feels like to practice this character trait is as follows:

- Volunteer with your child at a nursing home, soup kitchen or an outreach shelter, etc.
- You and your child can save money to help someone in need.
- Collect coats, canned goods, or clothing to donate to the needy.
- Make a visit to a homeless shelter.
- Help an elderly person with errands or chores.
- Volunteer with the Special Olympics, Relay for Life, March of Dimes, or Big Brothers/Big Sisters, etc.
