

ELMWOOD LIBRARY MONTHLY

LAST WEDNESDAY @11:30 LUNCH & LEARN

Join us to learn about a new topic each month. Finance history, current events, science. Got a topic you want to learn about? Got a topic you want to talk about? Let us know!

On January 31, we will hear from the Center for Independent Living.

THIRD THURSDAY @5:30 BOOK CLUB

We pick a new book to read and chat about each month. Didn't finish it? Didn't like it? Join us anyway! Pick up a copy of the book at the library, and come back on the Third Thursday to discuss.

Our book for January 18 is The Books of Jacob by Olga Tokarczuk.

EVERY DAY! PUZZLE CORNER

Come in to work on jigsaw puzzles, crosswords, Sudokus, and other ways to keep your mind active.

Mr. Nick is a big gamer, so we do have a number of board games on hand for use in the library, too: chess, Uno, Sequence, and more!

ELMWOOD STORYTIME

STORYTIME RESUMES JANUARY 22

We are taking our winter break from storytime, but we will get back to singing, reading, and playing together on Monday mornings on January 22nd! Join Mr. Nick, Grumpy, and the kids of Elmwood as they find new stories together.

Director's Notes

Very happy to break in 2024 with you, Elmwood! My first year as Director of Elmwood Library has been an absolute delight, and I have loved getting to know you all. Stop in and say hello if you haven't already!

I have started making some changes around the edges to modernize the library a bit; you will notice new book bins for our kids' books, and new labels in adult fiction so it's easy to find your favorite authors. But! This is YOUR library as much as it is mine – please let us know what you want it to look like, and what you want to find inside. Or stop in! I'm here Monday – Thursday, and I almost always have a pot of coffee brewing ☺.

NEW TITLES TO WATCH FOR IN 2024

Many of these titles will go first to people who request them in advance, so reserve your copy today or come in to the library and we can help you out!
