Please list what activities/clubs you are involved or plan to be involved in:

As a member of the yearbook staff, you must adhere to the following expectations:

- You will be presentable in attire and behavior while on the yearbook staff. If your attire/behavior becomes a reoccurring issue, you may be removed from the yearbook staff.
- As a member of of the yearbook staff, you may be asked to attend events, conduct interviews, take photos, etc. either during class time or after school hours. After hours participation is voluntary ONLY.
- You must make your yearbook pages assigned to you a priority and meet all deadlines.
- You will be working independently on the pages assigned to you. They will be your responsibility to stay on top of.
- You will be unable to switch out of the yearbook class once accepted unless there are extenuating circumstances.

Note: There will be very few grades in the yearbook class itself since most of the work is in designing the actual yearbook.

List three positive qualities that would make you an asset to the yearbook staff.
