Daniel N. Adcock

Oregon Diploma

“Graduation was a long time coming; but now's the easy part.” He’d like to thank his parents, family, and friends for being a helping hand during his high school years. From Sophomore Track, to Senior Robotics, after school activities were a nice break from the hectic responsibilities of everyday life. After graduation he plans to enter the workforce and eventually attend college for a computer related degree.

Johnathan Ancheta

CTE Program Completer, HS Diploma

I want to appreciate my mother, Evelyn, and my father John for being supportive and loving. I also want to thank everyone at the school who helped me succeed throughout all my school years. I’m 18 years old and come from a traditional fisherman family. I grew up in Celilo Village, with my grandma Ada Colfax Frank, whom I love and miss dearly. I’m interested in the CGCC advanced manufacturing program and am planning on going this fall after high school to experience more about manufacturing. My strengths are helping others and being a family oriented man, without a doubt. I'm looking forward to the future where I'll finally be an adult that can do more than be supportive, someone that can. I'll be working as hard as everyone else around me. I'd like to thank my brothers and sister for keeping me focused and always on top of things, our belief and trust grows with each day that we are side by side never leaving one another behind. I’m also going to be grateful for everyone who's helped me within my last year of high school, all the hard work, good motivation, and just kind hearted people in general.

Audrey Lynn Anderson

NHS, Community Service Award, Dufur Diploma

Audrey Lynn Anderson, daughter of Wes and Sarah Anderson, plans on continuing her post-secondary education at the University of Idaho. Audrey will be pursuing a degree in Agricultural Sciences, Communications and Leadership, while living in one of the many sorority houses University of Idaho has to offer. Audrey is passionate about all things agriculture-based and is looking forward to continuing her knowledge of the subject and plans to keep the industry alive. During the duration of her high school career Audrey participated in many extracurricular activities such as showing 4-H market steers, Dufur Cheer Team, ASB, National Honor Society, Dufur School Board, and the Ranger Pride Education Foundation. Audrey's senior year brought forth titles such as ASB President and Dufur Ranger Cheer Captain. She would like to thank her parents for encouraging her to always be the best version of herself. Audrey wants to thank her family and close friends for always supporting her. She'd also like to thank her best friend, Sonya, for reminding her to enjoy the little things in life and not let the stresses of senior year bring her down.

Cloey Arguello

Oregon Diploma

I wanna thank my parents for pushing me to finish school, and becoming the person I am today. I also want to give a huge thank you to all the teachers for always taking the time to help me, especially Mrs. Anderson for always being my person I could always count on. After graduation I plan on getting my CNA license.

Donald L Brewster

CTE Program Completer, FFA, Dufur Diploma

Donald L. Brewster is the son of Theodore L. Brewster and Stephanie R. McCoy. He participated in football, baseball, and FFA. In his spare time he enjoys fishin' and fixing whatever breaks next on his F-150. Donald intends on going into the trades. Donald would like to thank his family and teachers for helping him get this far.

Griffin Elliott Clark

Dufur Diploma

Griffin Elliot Clark is a graduating student of the class of 2024 at Dufur High School. His parents are Ryan and Marcella Clark. Being at Dufur High School has really been a very good experience overall for him. He may have not been the best student, but he always put his heart into everything he did and he never gave anything but his full effort to all classes. He has been so blessed to have two amazing parents, great teachers, his two almost perfect sisters Geelah and Gabriella, and his incredible and very supporting girlfriend, that have helped him along the way to graduating. He is very excited for his next chapter up at CGCC (which he plans to attend in the fall) and finding a career that is right for him. Dufur, will not be forgotten by him, Dufur has been a huge chapter of his life. He couldn't be more grateful.

Molly Jean Cochenour

Salutatorian, NHS, Honors Graduate, Community Service Award, Dufur Diploma

Molly Jean Cochenour is the salutatorian of the graduating class of 2024. Molly started attending Dufur School in the fifth grade and has participated in various extracurriculars throughout her time here. She has been a part of the cheer team for three years and the golf team for all four years of her high school career. Molly is also a standing member of the National Honor Society and has made the honor roll every year since 6th grade. After high school, she plans to attend Boise State University's Honors program to pursue a degree in pre-med and further attend medical school to become a board-certified radiologist.

Breanna Lynn Elliott

Oregon Diploma

Breanna Elliott is graduating at seventeen years old. She has struggled throughout high school, although she has finally finished with school and is moving on to her career. She never really knew what she wanted to do with her life, but within the past couple of years she has finally decided what she wants to do: She is going to be a nail technician. While it may not sound like much to most people, she has found that doing nails is an amazing experience. She has taught herself just about everything necessary for doing nails on herself and other people, and she believes that she is all set to make a career out of it. Breanna has worked hard the last few years of school, and made close friends who support her and her decisions. She appreciates all the opportunities that have been given to her, and she will go far to accomplish her goals. Thank you to everybody who has helped and believed in Breanna Elliott.

Alasey Eyvonne Lee Hodges

CTE Program Completer, FFA, NHS, Honors Graduate, Community Service Award, Dufur Diploma

Hi, my name is Alasey Hodges and I am the daughter of Angela Heard and niece of Casandra White and Jason Nisbet. I am a part of the Dufur FFA chapter, NHS, and ASB. I enjoy being involved in sports including, Volleyball, Basketball, and Track. I will be attending Grand Canyon University where I will major in Molecular Biology with an emphasis in pre-med. My career goal is to become a pediatric doctor. I would like thank my mom and aunt for always being supportive and encouraging me to achieve my goals.

Caitlynn E. Howe

HS Diploma

Caitlynn Howe is graduating from Dufur School at 18 years old. Although she struggled with her freshman and sophomore years due to change, she has grown and adapted to the community around her. After high school, Caitlynn plans to become an interior designer. In her spare time, Caitlynn likes to draw digitally, which over time became a part time job that she now earns money from. Caitlynn really enjoyed her construction class during her junior year with Leona Egeland and plans to take on the career of construction if interior design does not work out. Caitlynn thanks her mother Lesley Baldwin and her father Ben Turner for lifting her head up and leading her down the right path, as well as making her into the person she is today. Caitlynn also thanks all of her friends that she met throughout her time here for always keeping a smile on her face.

Jared V. Infante Medina

CTE Program Completer, Dufur Diploma

Jared is the son of Lucy Lindhorst, and step-son of Shawn Lindhorst. He wants to thank his sister, Cynthia, for pushing him in his academics. He enjoys watching all types of sports, and playing golf. His favorite things to do are watch movies and listen to music. His favorite things from high school were no-school Fridays. Jared has worked for Ace Hardware throughout high school and has enjoyed it. He plans to go to trade school for pipe fitting.

JJ Johnston
