DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Thursday, December 7th, 2023

Congratulations to the 8th grade girls basketball team on the first sectional win since 2010! They'll play in the first round of the state finals on Saturday in Germantown Hills! Stay tuned to the announcements for more details, and check out the newest hardware in the office!

Middle School students, you are to ALWAYS walk quietly through the halls of LHS! On multiple occasions in the last couple of weeks Mrs. Ellis and Mrs. Wagenblast have had to ask students to stop running and stop being loud in the halls. HS students are preparing for finals and will be taking finals starting next week and the following week. We would like for it to be a quiet working environment. QUIET in the halls in any building is always required!

Yesterday's riddle was "You can catch me easily, especially during the holidays, but you can never throw me. What am I?" Mrs. Adam's 1st period class was the first in with the answer of "a cold". 12 other classes were right behind them!

Thursday Chess Club will meet today in A209. Grab your lunch and come on up!

Tonight is a busy night for LMS sports! Our wrestlers will have their first meet of the season in Vandalia. The triangular with Vandalia & Roxana starts at 4:30. The bus leaves at 2:35. Teachers, please dismiss the wrestlers after taking attendance in 9th period. Wrestlers, you will meet in the hallway outside the gym.

And, the 7th & 8th grade boys' basketball teams will host Greenville tonight in Panther Gym. The first game is at 6:00. The team and Spirit Club are asking you to wear your ugliest Christmas sweater tonight!

LMS Christmas Concerts will be held this Sunday, December 10th beginning at 1:00 in Simmons Gym at LHS. Students must arrive a half hour before their performance, and are to stay for the entire concert they are involved in. These performances are for a grade. Check the bulletin board by the office for more information and required dress!

Any student who would like to add or drop choir or band for second semester should email Ms. Dal Canton as soon as possible. The final day to contact her is Wednesday, December 13th. Don't wait! Email now!

Panther Delights will not be open tomorrow, but will be next Friday, December 15th!
