Parents: Because of our 4-day school week, student attendance becomes even more important. We do ask that parents please review this calendar when making plans for extended vacations and try to match those plans with our scheduled breaks to help minimize how much school your child will be missing. If a child must miss school days for illness or for other reasons, teachers and/or school administrators may ask that your child attend on some Flex Fridays if additional time is needed to learn information missed due to absences.
